COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

FOR ITS COMPLAINT in this matter, Plaintiff, THE WEATHER UNDERGROUND,
INC., by and through its attorneys, TRAVERSE LEGAL, PLC, states:

81. Defendants use <wunderphotos.com> to display a web site that features links to competitors of Plaintiff and sources to access weather conditions and forecasts. See Exhibit V, Printout of web site from <wunderphotos.com>.

82. The <wunderphotos.com> domain name is identical or confusingly similar to the Wunderground Marks, namely its WUNDER Family of Marks, and violates Plaintiff's common law trademark rights in WUNDERPHOTOS.

83. Defendants' registration and use of <wunderphotos.com> creates a likelihood of consumer confusion as to the source, sponsorship, affiliation, or endorsement of Defendants' web site by Plaintiff Wunderground.

84. Defendants' use of <wunderphotos.com> has been and continues to be in commerce, including United States commerce, as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1127.

85. Defendant's registration and use of <wunderphotos.com> was and is intended to capitalize on the goodwill associated with the Wunderground Marks and Wunderground's own web sites.

86. Defendants wrongfully profit from the unlawful use of the Wunderground Marks, including the Plaintiff's WUNDERPHOTOS mark.

c. Continued Mass Cybersquatting Evidences Defendants' Unlawful Business Model

87. Defendants committed, and continue to commit, the unlawful acts cited herein intentionally, as part of their regular way of conducting business.

88. As noted above, Defendants utilize software and a process to register the domain names with sufficient direct navigation traffic to generate a positive Return on Investment ("ROI"). Defendants have been and remain aware that their domain registration strategy, software and process will register and monetize typographical variations of trademark protected domain names such as the Infringing Domains listed herein, as well as many other famous brands. Its current registration of other typo-domains is easily identified by searching for typographical variations of Alexa.com's "Global Top Sites" list of the highest ranked traffic web sites on the Internet and shows that Defendants continue to engage in cybersquatting. A representative sampling includes, but is not limited to, the following typo-domains:

- a. Wikipedua.org, Wikiperdia.com, Ikipedia.com, Wikipedika.com, Wikipwdia.com, Wikioedia.com infringing the USPTO trademark registration for WIKIPEDIA (Reg. No. 3,040,722);
