Importance: High

Hem Vyas,

We are currently waiting for payment to post to our escrow account. The check has been mailed, but since we are running up against the holiday I don't think escrow.com will have the money posted before December 1st. I apologize for the delay and hope we can extend the deadline since we have already initiated the payment process.

Thank you in advance,

Hem Vyas,

I worked with Iris Freeman and Chris Pirrone on the terms of the contract. I have the agreed upon version signed and will be faxing it today. Should I send it to your attention?

Also, escrow.com has received our payment and is processing it. It should be sometime next week that the money will post to the account.

Thanks,
