Re: Trial Witness Issues

Dear Will:

As expected, this matter is going to trial. We have a lot of work to do in order to get ready. For starters, please confirm that the following employees still work for Defendants and will be available to appear at trial scheduled to begin March 12, 2012. To the extent that a witness no longer works for Defendants, please indicate so, including the last known address, phone numbers, and emails. To the extent the person still works for Defendants but is unavailable, please identify the scheduling problem. To the extent the witness does not work for Defendants but is voluntarily willing to appear, so indicate.

Finally, please confirm the availability of your experts, Richard Korf and John Berryhill, at trial as well. While this may not be the final witness list for trial, this will at least give us a head start in determining whom we might have to take de bene esse and who will be appearing live.

If you would like to provide me a list of the witnesses working for Plaintiff whom you intend to call at trial, I will provide the same courtesy of indicating availability.

Sincerely,
