REQUEST FOR INSPECTION OF PREMISES OF NAVIGATION CATLYST SYSTEMS, INC.

Plaintiff, The Weather Underground, Inc., by and through its counsel, Traverse Legal, PLC, requests Defendant Navigation Catalyst Systems, Inc., to permit Plaintiff's counsel, Enrico Schaefer and Brian A. Hall, and possibly a representative from Plaintiff, to enter the premises of Defendant Navigation Catalyst Systems, located at 2141 Rosecrans Avenue, Suite 2020, El Segundo, California.

This request is made pursuant to F.R.C.P. § 34(a)(1)(B)(2) and is for the purposes of inspecting the premises and offices of Defendant Navigation Catalyst Systems as well as any operation therein. Plaintiff's counsel welcome a representative of Defendant, or Defendant's counsel, to accompany Plaintiff throughout the inspection. Plaintiff's counsel will not speak with any persons present and will not inspect any documents at that time, absent prior permission from Defendant or Defendant's counsel. Plaintiff requests that its counsel be allowed to inspect the premises and offices on Wednesday, January 27, 2009, at 11:00 a.m.

Respectfully submitted this 19th day of January, 2010/

NAVIGATION CATALYST SYSTEMS, INC.'S OBJECTION TO REQUEST FOR PHYSICAL INSPECTION OF PREMISES OF NAVIGATION CATALYST SYSTEMS, INC.

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(b)(2), Navigation Catalyst Systems, Inc. ("NCS") objects to Plaintiff's Request to Inspect Premises of NCS on the following bases and to the extent that: (i) the request was issued on January 19, 2010 but requested an inspection on January 27, 2010 which did not allow NCS the full thirty (30) days to respond as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(b)(2)(A), (ii) the request seeks an inspection which is patently irrelevant as this case does not involve physical property, a manufacturing process, or some other physical process, the inspection of which would be necessary, and (iii) the request is unduly harassing in that it is motivated simply by Plaintiff's desire to disrupt the business of NCS on January 27, 2010.

William:

I just got your message as yesterday was a part-time day for me, President's day. As I recall, the answers were due yesterday. It appears your email was sent at 4:00 EST yesterday, the due date.

I need to review these types of requests with the client. In the future, I would need more lead time and notice so I can process these. As always, my concerns revolve around whether I am granting an extension for a legitimate purpose. As I am sure has happened to you, counsel sometimes asks for extensions then provides boilerplate objects which begs the question of why an extension was needed in the first place.

Again, I have no problem with reasonable requests for more time. Please give me more time next time so we can talk, do some diligence and get the client's approval.

Enrico,

I have been in the process of preparing responses to Plaintiff's First Set of Requests for Production and First Set of Interrogatories. I am requesting an extension on the time to respond to February 26, 2010, the date that the Court provided for our supplemental initial disclosures,

Please let me know if you would be willing to grant this extension.

Thanks,
Will Delgado
