ORDER CONTINUING STAY OF CIVIL
FORFEITURE CASE UNTIL MARCH 31, 2018

This matter comes before the court on the government’s October 2, 2017 status report [doc. 63] requesting that the current stay of this civil forfeiture proceeding remain in effect pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(g) until its companion criminal case, United States v. Shirley Douglas, et al., 2:16-cr-20436-DML-APP (E.D. Mich. Jun. 16, 2016), is resolved and until such time the government concludes its criminal investigation of the remaining individuals listed in the Complaint. A stay was previously entered upon stipulation for six months, expiring on October 2, 2017.

The United States requests that the stay be extended until March 31,

2018. No objections to a continuation of the stay have been voiced.

The court grants a continuation of the stay of the civil forfeiture action until March 31, 2018. The government is required to provide an updated status report on or before that date.

So ordered.
