ORDER ON SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

On July 19, 2017, the Court held a telephonic scheduling conference with counsel for all parties. For the reasons explained during that conference, in lieu of entering a full scheduling order at this time, the Court will instead authorize the parties to conduct discovery for a period of ninety (90) days focused on the issue of determining the identification of the entity (or entities) that placed, or are responsible for placing, the telephone calls that are the subject of this civil action. At the conclusion of this ninety-day period, the Court will convene a telephonic status conference to discuss the appropriate next steps in this action.
