Plaintiffs,

v.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 17-11841
Honorable Laurie J. Michelson
Magistrate Judge Mona K. Majzoub

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME [16, 17]
AND DISMISSING COMPLAINT WITHOUT PREJUDICE

In the year-and-a-half since Plaintiffs filed their complaint, the case has not progressed. In August 2017, Plaintiffs were ordered to supplement their complaint. The supplement was to include Defendants' service information. That information is needed for the U.S. Marshal to serve Defendants. The original deadline for the supplement was August 31, 2017. Plaintiffs requested an extension of that deadline, and the Court gave Plaintiffs until November 21, 2017. (R. 9, PageID.143) Plaintiffs then asked for 180 more days. (R. 11.) The Court also granted that request: "Plaintiffs have until May 14, 2018 to file their supplement." (R. 12, PageID.153.) Around that date, Plaintiffs made a third request for an extension. (R. 13.) The Court, again, granted the request. But the Court explained that would be the last extension: "the Court will grant one final extension. But if Plaintiffs do not file a supplement consistent with this Court's screening order (see R. 5, PageID.125) by November 30, 2018, this case will be dismissed without prejudice to refiling a new lawsuit." (R. 14.)

On November 30, 2018, Plaintiffs filed their fourth request for an extension to file their supplement. The Court will adhere to its prior order. Plaintiffs have not filed the supplement; so Plaintiffs' complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE to filing a new lawsuit.

SO ORDERED.
