Pursuant to Local Civil Rule, I determine the newly filed case:

- relates to property involved in an earlier numbered pending suit (3.3.1(d)(iii)(A)(1)) (related)
- arises out of the same transaction of occurrence and involves one or more of the same parties as a pending suit (3.3.1(d)(iii)(A)(2)) (related)
- involves the validity or infringement of a patent already in suit in any pending earlier numbered case (3.3.1(d)(iii)(A)(3)) (related)
- is a refiling of an earlier case that was dismissed or remanded to state court (3.3.1(d)(i)) (refiling)
- is a subsequent proceeding to another case (3.3.1(d)(ii)) (subsequent)

Findings:

- The matters are deemed related, a refiling, a subsequent proceeding, or otherwise subject to L.Civ.R. 3.3.1(d) and shall be assigned to the presiding judge of the earliest filed case.
- The matters are not related. Case shall be randomly assigned.

- The matters are such that there is a sufficient basis to believe that judicial economy may be served by the assignment to a single judge under L.Civ.R. 3.3.2(b)(iii). Case shall be randomly assigned. The undersigned will send a recommendation to the affected judges.
