novo review under the statute. Mira v. Marshall, 806 F.2d 636, 637 (6th Cir. 1986) (per curiam).

The report and recommendation (ECF No. 28) is ADOPTED as the opinion of this Court. Generally, Lewis's objections do not address the accurate summary of the facts outlined in the magistrate judge's report. The magistrate judge identifies the two relevant grievances, and explains why those two grievances exhaust only Lewis's claim for the denial of his shower shoes and was only given two single packs of toothpaste. The other claims alleged in the complaint were not exhausted in either of these grievances.

Having adopted the report and recommendation, Defendants' motion for summary judgment (ECF No. 18) is GRANTED.

The Court acknowledges that, since the report and recommendation was issued, Lewis was granted leave to file an amended complaint, which he has done (ECF No. 30). This order does not affect any new claim raised in the amended complaint that was not raised in the original complaint.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
