Brian:

Attached is a draft stipulation regarding ownership and registration. Please let me know as soon as possible whether this form is acceptable to Defendant. I have included only those issues about which there should be no dispute (based on the documents and information provided to Defendant and Defendant's deposition testimony). If the parties cannot agree on a stipulation, Plaintiffs will need to move for summary judgment on these issues. Thanks very much.

Tim,

I spoke to my client and sent her the draft stipulation. Her response is that we can so stipulate provided we have your written assurances that plaintiffs will not bring any summary judgment motions in this case.

Hello Brian:

I have not received the signed stipulation that we discussed last week. When we spoke earlier this week, you indicated that you would send me an email authorizing me to place your e-signature on the stipulation, and that you would also send an original signed copy in the mail. I have not received your email or the signed copy of the stipulation. I know you are in court this week and are busy, but I would appreciate your sending me your email authorization as soon as possible, as time is running very short here. Plaintiffs agreed not to file any motions for summary judgment because of the parties' stipulation, and have not done so.

Separately, Plaintiffs intend to file a motion to vacate the settlement conference set for September. You have and I have discussed a possible settlement numerous times, and I think we both agree that the conference would be a waste of time for the parties and the court. Please confirm so we can file a stipulated or unopposed motion.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Tim
