

Exhibit B

Stephanie called me several times in 2007 always around 1 in the morning e.s.t. telling me she was at the Betty Ford treatment facility getting help. We spoke a lot. She wanted to make sure I would not contact her husband and let him know she had called me when we spoke for 4 hours.

Phone calls to my cell phone by Stephanie McIlvain on Friday, February 29, 2008:

12:21 a.m.

Betsy, it's Stephanie. Why don't you stop, why don't you stop the slander, why don't you stop leaving me alone. I cannot take it any more. you can leave my message, you could put it on the internet cuz obviously you thrive on that cuz you're such a sick fucking bitch. You know what - I'm so sick of you. Why don't we tell the public how you volunteered and you go - and went ahead to testify against Lance Armstrong. Why don't we tell the public how you told me months and months and months ahead that your husbnad used epo, okay? YOU know what? Stop using me I've had it. My son basically is going to be committed to a home within the next six months because he's completely out of control. And you keep using my name (inaudible) in your media - whatever. I don't care if you hate Lance Armstrong. Don't use me, don't use Dylan. My family's falling apart. Go ahead and use that cuz I'm sure you will. But I just want to let you know that I'm tired, Pat's tired and we're tired of hearing all of your bullshit. Let it be. Who gives a shit what happens to Lance Armstrong. I don't and the public doesn't. Botton line is you know what? Your husband used drugs - he's just as guilty as everybody else. And I am so tired of the whole thing. Bottom line is my son's gonna be committed within the next six months to an institution (inaudible) the beating of his mother and I'm tired of people calling me and telling me what you're saying about me. I have not read it. All I can say is that you're a poor excuse of a good Catholic woman and I hope you rot in hell.

I hope somebody breaks a baseball bat over your head but I also hope that one day you have adversity in your life and you have some type of tragedy that will hit your family that will definitely impact on you make you softer and make you realize what life is about other than going after people that you actually hate. It's pathetic Betsy. I thought you were a better person than that. And I'm so sad that you're not. I've moved on. I don't have any contact with Lance and I don't have contact with you. But you just keep going and going and going. IT's so sad. Go ahead and post that on the internet. Okay? Go ahead and post it because you're such a shallow bitch.
