1 Q. And what was your understanding about the
2 place that PTI would sell these products if they could
3 enter into a deal with Mr. LeMond? Was it going to be 4 an independent bike dealers or somewhere else?

5 A. No. It was going to be in the mass market
6 nationally through like Target Stores but looking to go
7 into all big-box stores, as many as possible. And the 8 initial --

9 (Interruption)

10 -- THE WITNESS: -- the initial situation was 11 through Target Stores.

12 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Okay. Now in the bike
13 industry there is a dividing line between the 14 independent bike dealers and mass merchants; is that
15 right?

16 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

17 THE WITNESS: Yes, that there is -- the 18 independent bike dealers are very afraid of the mass
19 market. Generally our selling was very low margins in 20 selling in volume. It makes it very difficult for the 21 independent bike dealer to compete with a mass market
22 operation.

23 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Okay. I am going to hand you
24 what we've marked as Exhibit 128.

1 (Defendant's Exhibit 128, Greg LeMond - Name
2 Usage Proposal, was marked for identification.)

3 Q. BY MR. WEBER: This is a memo dated June 3rd,
4 1999, from David Haaf to you regarding Greg Lemond's
5 proposal. Have you seen this before?

6 A. Yes, I have.

7 Q. So by June 3rd, 1999, discussions with PTI
8 had advanced to the point where potential deal points
9 had been reduced to writing?

10 A. That's right, yes.

11 Q. Okay. And if you could just take a moment to 12 skim through that and see -- do you remember having 13 discussions with Mr. Haaf on or before June 3rd, 1999,
14 on those terms?

15 A. Yes.

16 (Defendant's Exhibit 129, e-mail dated
17 Friday, June 4th, 1999, was marked for identification.)

18 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Now let me hand you an exhibit
19 from the next day, Exhibit 129, which is an e-mail
20 dated Friday, June 4th, from Mr. Haaf to you: Hi,
21 Warren. This is a copy of what I sent to the New York
22 office at 1:20 a.m., et cetera.

23 Do you see that?

24 A. I do.

25 Q. Do you recall getting this from Mr. Haaf

DEPOSITION OF WARREN GIBSON

Page 12

1 in -- on or about June 4th, 1999?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And if we look at the bottom of -- the last
4 line on the first page, there is item -- deal point
5 Number 2: $500,000 minimum annual compensation to Greg
6 guaranteed for ten years.

7 Do you see that?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. So that by June 4th, 1999, Mr. LeMond and PTI
10 were discussing a ten-year deal at $500,000 per year?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Now at the time of these discussions,
13 Mr. LeMond was still in a contract with Greg that 14 covered parts and accessories, right?

15 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

16 THE WITNESS: I think you mean Trek.

17 Mr. LeMond was in a contract with Trek.

18 Q. BY MR. WEBER: I misspoke, sorry. Let me
19 start over.

20 At the time of these discussions Mr. LeMond
21 was still in a contract with Trek that gave Trek the 22 right to sell parts and accessories with his name?

23 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

24 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

1 (Defendant's Exhibit 130, Memo dated June
2 5th, 1999, was marked for identification.)

3 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Exhibit 130 is a memo from the 4 next day, June 5th, from you back to Mr. Haaf; is that 5 correct?

6 A. Yes, it is.

7 Q. And do you recall selling Mr. Haaf this --
8 sending Mr. Haaf this memo?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. Okay. And the first line of Exhibit 130
11 says: I hope you have had time to review the revised
12 nonbinding letter of intent that I faxed to you this 13 morning. I just spoke with Greg LeMond and he is 14 interested in this potential opportunity and is looking
15 forward to our conference call on Monday June 7, 1999,
16 at 230 p.m. eastern district time.

17 Right?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. So by June 5th, 1999, would it be fair to say
20 that discussions with PTI had gotten very serious and 21 specific?

22 A. Yes, they were.

23 Q. Okay. Now did you have an understanding
24 about whether Mr. LeMond disclosed any of these
25 discussions he was having with Trek -- with PTI to Trek

1 or whether he made efforts to keep it secret?

2 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form; foundation.

3 Go ahead, if you know.

4 THE WITNESS: That was to be kept very
5 confidential at that time and not disclosed to Trek.

6 Q. BY MR. WEBER: And how do you know that?

7 A. Well, he told me.

8 Q. Okay. Did you have an understanding about
9 why he wanted to keep it secret from Trek?

10 A. He had an ongoing contract with Trek and it
11 was at -- probably two reasons: One, he had a current 12 contract in place and he was negotiating a new
13 contract the same -- for the same products and so there
14 was a conflict on the -- on having a contract in place
15 and negotiating for a new contract. And two, if Trek
16 knew that he was negotiating with a company that wanted
17 to take products into the mass market, they probably 18 would have not let him out of the contract that he was 19 in with them because it would have been a complete --
20 completely against their business plan and the way they 21 do business.

22 (Defendant's Exhibit 131, fax transmission
23 dated August 10, 1999, was marked for identification.)

24 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Okay. I am going to hand you
25 a document we've marked as Exhibit 131. That is a fax

Page 15

1 from Mr. Sidney Bluming in New York to Michael Sproule
2 with a copy to you and Mr. LeMond dated August 10,
3 1999. Do you see that?

4 A. Um-hum. I do.

5 Q. And the first line refers to: In accordance
6 with the deal memo of June 22nd -- and so on, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Let me direct your attention to the second
9 paragraph, the last line. It states, quote, Noting
10 that we all agreed, at least for the time being, that 11 PTI should remain in the background.

12 Is that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And did you have an understanding of what 15 Mr. Bluming was talking about?

16 A. Again, I -- Greg did not want Trek to know
17 anything about the potential PTI contract because Trek
18 would never release them from the accessory and peril
19 contract that he was currently in with them at that 20 time.

21 Q. Now in doing the PTI deal, was -- to your 22 knowledge was Greg worried that taking his brand into 23 the mass market could negatively affect his bike sells?

24 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

25 THE WITNESS: Yes, he was at first, and as he

1 thought through it he decided that -- and listening to
2 the PTI folks, he decided that it would be something
3 that would be worth the risk if it was appropriately
4 handled.

5 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Right. And did Greg protect
6 his financial downside by obtaining a ten-year $500,000
7 per year guarantee from PTI?

8 A. Yes, he did.

9 Q. So his financial downside was protected if 10 his bike sales suffered, right?

11 A. I -- that's correct.

12 Q. But Trek was hung out to dry?

13 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

14 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

15 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Let's move forward, then, over
16 the next few years 1999, 2000, 2001. Lance Armstrong
17 was having success in the Tour de France, right?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. And he was getting a lot of attention because 20 of his personal story and athletic success?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And as a result or in conjunction with that,
23 road bikes as a market segment were experiencing a lot
24 of success, weren't they?

25 A. A lot -- very much success, yes.

DEPOSITION OF WARREN GIBSON

Page 17

1 MS. RAHNE: Objecting to the forms of your
2 questions. They're terribly leading, but go ahead and 3 continue if you would like.

4 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Did you -- can you tell me
5 whether or not you knew that -- how road bikes were
6 doing in connection with Lance's success on the bike?

7 A. Well, only from being involved in the 8 industry, the bicycle industry, that when an American
9 is having success in Europe in bicycle racing, bicycle
10 sales increase. Same thing happened when Greg was 11 having his success prior to Lance; bicycle sales
12 increased. And then there was a downswing after Greg
13 retired, and then when Lance came on to the scene
14 bicycle sales in general in the United States
15 increased.

16 Q. Did you have discussions with Mr. LeMond
17 about how he might approach Lance and embrace or reject
18 Lance's success?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. Tell us about that.

21 A. I suggested that Mr. LeMond ally and
22 embellish Lance as a colleague for business reasons;
23 that if he was supporting Lance and we'll say mentoring
24 him, because he was the retired former champion, that
25 could help LeMond bicycle sales with the bicycle

Page 18

1 consumer. With Greg working closely with Lance it
2 would have drove his sales, which I believe at that
3 time may have been somewhere between 15- and $17
4 million. I think that it could have drove those sales
5 up substantially. I would hate to put a number on it
6 because who knows.

7 Q. Did you have discussions with Mr. LeMond
8 about how big the number could get?

9 A. I always thought -- based on Gary Fisher's
10 sales being pretty substantial at that time, I always
11 thought that Greg's sales could go to 30-, $40 million.

12 Q. Now beginning in 2001 Mr. LeMond began making
13 some very critical comments about Mr. Armstrong; is 14 that right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Were you -- did you have discussions with 17 Greg about the impact of those comments and what it was 18 doing to his bike brand?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. And tell us about that.

21 A. I suggested that Greg leave his personal
22 feelings about what he felt about Lance alone due to 23 business reasons, not only his business reasons but my
24 business reasons as well, because if Greg was a popular
25 and successful former athlete aligned in business -- in

1 a business relationship with Lance, it would not only
2 drive overall bike sales, LeMond bike sales, but it
3 would make it easier for me to get additional contracts
4 for Greg. Consequently I would make more money also.

5 Q. Now by that time, by 2001, you had known Greg
6 for 17 years or so, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And worked with him in a number of deals?

9 A. Yes, I did. Yes, I had.

10 Q. Okay. And had travelled with him and engaged
11 in a number of personal and social activities as well?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And did you have a number of discussions with 14 Greg about Lance Armstrong and Greg's attitude towards 15 Lance?

16 A. I spoke to him on many occasions that -- for 17 business reasons -- he ought to keep his personal
18 thoughts tempered as opposed to coming out and making
19 his negative comments, which I felt was -- initially
20 was due to pure jealousy of Lance's success.

21 Q. What do you mean when you say you thought
22 Mr. LeMond was jealous of Lance's success?

23 A. Well, Greg is a very competitive guy. Any 24 world-class athlete is very competitive, and most
25 world-class athletes are very proud of their successes

Page 20

1 and -- as Greg was of his successes, and I felt that
2 Greg was initially doing this as just pure jealousy
3 just from knowing him over the years.

4 Q. Right.

5 A. He had certainly been on the campaign trail
6 about that ever since, so...

7 Q. Were you aware in the summer of 2001 that 8 Mr. John Burke at Trek had called up Greg and tried to 9 mediate the dispute between Greg LeMond and Lance
10 Armstrong?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And how did you know that?

13 A. Greg told me about it.

14 Q. Did Greg tell you whether he had secretly
15 taped Mr. Burke?

16 A. Yes, he did.

17 Q. What did he say?

18 A. Well, he indicated that he had tapes that --
19 if there was at any time that Trek wanted to terminate
20 his relationship, that he had tapes that would 21 incriminate John Burke and that he felt that they were 22 powerful enough that they -- you know, that Trek would 23 not terminate him.

24 Q. Do you have any understanding that Greg was 25 going to use tapes for leverage against Trek?

Page 21

1 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

2 Go ahead.

3 THE WITNESS: That was his intention.

4 Q. BY MR. WEBER: And what do you base that on,
5 something he said or something else?

6 A. No. Purely what he told me.

7 Q. In 2004 there was an additional round of
8 publicity associated with some of Mr. Lemond's comments
9 against Mr. Armstrong. Were you aware of consumer
10 reaction to those comments?

11 A. We had a website and -- at that time with a 12 bulletin board, and the bulletin board had an 13 overwhelming amount of comments on the bulletin board.

14 Q. And did Mr. LeMond ask you to do anything
15 with the bulletin board?

16 A. He asked to have the bulletin board shut
17 down.

18 Q. Did he say why?

19 A. He didn't care for the negative comments that 20 were coming out on the bulletin board about him.

21 Q. Were you aware that in August of 2004 Trek
22 sent Mr. LeMond a notice of breach of contract?

23 A. I was aware of that.

24 Q. And were you asked to do anything in terms of 25 trying to find a new business partner for Mr. LeMond?

Page 22

1 A. Greg asked me if I would speak to Specialized
2 Bicycle companies, Michael Sinyard, over in Morgan
3 Hill, California.

4 Q. Okay. And was Mr. Sinyard someone you knew?

5 A. I knew Mr. Sinyard, yes.

6 Q. For -- for a long time or --

7 A. Over the years in the bike industry, yes.

8 Q. Okay. So did you speak with Mr. Sinyard?

9 A. I did.

10 Q. And did -- did he tell you anything about 11 whether Mr. LeMond and what he was doing was very 12 helpful to the industry or was very negative to the 13 industry or something else?

14 A. Well, first he felt that Greg was -- the 15 money or the royalty percentage Greg wanted, that he
16 asked to say, This is what I would want if I was with 17 another company. Mr. Sinyard's thought was too high
18 because of the margins in the bike industry for sales
19 of bikes was too small.

20 Q. And what was the margin he was asking?

21 A. Five to seven percent.

22 And he then said that he felt that the 23 negative publicity that Greg was generating for the 24 bicycle industry was not good at all and he would not 25 like to have that situation in his company. And that

Page 23

1 he said that he wouldn't be interested in taking Greg
2 on even with a different brand of bike. Kind of like
3 not trying to say this isn't really associated with 4 Specialized. He said he just didn't want anything to 5 do with Mr. LeMond at that time.

6 Q. Do you know whether approaches were made to 7 other industry companies like Giant or Merida or 8 Pacific?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And how do you know that?

11 A. Greg told me.

12 Q. And what was your understanding about the
13 reaction that was -- that those companies --

14 A. Well, another gentleman -- and I can't tell
15 you his name -- researched that for him. And according 16 to Greg, nobody wanted to provide the opportunity to 17 Greg to put their -- his name on their bikes.

18 Q. Was that something Mr. LeMond told you
19 personally?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Now in December of 2004 were you aware that
22 Mr. LeMond sent a threatened lawsuit to Trek --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- threatening to make tapes public if Trek
25 did not continue to do business with Mr. LeMond?

Page 26

1 personally maintained?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And did you maintain those records in 4 connection with the work you were doing on behalf of 5 Mr. LeMond?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. Was Mr. LeMond aware of the work that you
8 were doing on his behalf with respect to the bicycles?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And how do you know that?

11 A. Well, he would always -- he always had to get 12 his approval before you would give a bike out to 13 somebody and -- and he would want to know what it was 14 being sold for. He would tell you what he would want 15 to sell it for.

16 Q. Okay. Well, when you say you had to get his
17 approval and find out from him what he wanted to sell
18 it for, what do you mean? Weren't all the bikes just 19 sold for approximately what he paid for?

20 A. No. They were -- there was like a -- three
21 levels. It's like close friends, very close friends;
22 there was somewhat close friends; and then there was 23 people that he wanted to provide bikes to for one 24 reason or another. And so he would generally take the 25 very close friends and let them have it -- have the

Page 27

1 bicycles for his cost, and he would let pretty close
2 friends, or maybe that weren't as -- as -- it was hard
3 to say, you know; it was just kind of a nebulous area
4 in there, but there would be a little bit more money,
5 and then for people that he really didn't know, but for
6 one reason or another he wanted to provide them a bike,
7 he had set up a price structure that was close to
8 wholesale, a little bit below wholesale.

9 Q. Okay.

10 (Defendant's Exhibit 132, LeMond Bicycle
11 file, was marked for identification.)

12 Q. BY MR. WEBER: For ease of reference, I have
13 made a copy of your original file and we have marked
14 that as Exhibit 132, and it runs from Bates numbers
15 Gibson 370 on Page 1 to Gibson 564 at the end. So we 16 can work off the Bate stamped set --

17 A. Okay.

18 Q. -- so we can be on the same page of what 19 documents we are looking at.

20 First of all, if we look at the first page,
21 Gibson 370, do you recognize that as a photocopy of the 22 folder you have in front of you of original documents?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Let's turn in to several pages, to Bates Page
25 373 and 374, the 2001 Fisher and LeMond Price List. Do

Page 28

1 you see that?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. And if we could turn to the second page, we
4 see there four columns of pricing under LeMond, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And there is some handwriting on there,
7 Shipping Ground $50 Additional, do you know whose 8 handwriting that is?

9 A. That's my handwriting.

10 Q. Okay. Now these four columns, there is an 11 Advertised column, a Level 1 column, a GL Prices, and 12 Friends prices. Do you see that?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 Q. And what was your understanding about what 15 those four columns were?

16 A. The advertised price is what Trek would
17 advertise the bike for sale.

18 Q. For a consumer?

19 A. For a consumer. Yes, for a consumer from 20 Trek.

21 Q. So taking a Tete de Course, for example, at 22 the bottom of the column.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. The consumer price for that product would be 25 $4,499.99?

Page 29

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. Category 2, Level 1, did you have an
3 understanding what that was?

4 A. Level 1 was the bicycle dealer would have to 5 buy a number of bikes, and they had several different
6 levels, Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3, and it depended
7 on how much -- how many bikes the guy -- the dealer
8 bought at what level he would get the bikes. But we 9 will say the first level, being as maybe they bought
10 one to three bikes, would be for a -- staying on Tete
11 de Course, would be $2,679 Trek selling the bike to the 12 Trek bicycle dealer.

13 Q. So the dealer would pay 2,679. What is the 14 third column?

15 A. The third column is the price that Greg would 16 get that bike for if he desired to get a bike.

17 Q. So he could get a Tete de Course under the 18 2001 pricing list for how much?

19 A. $1,804.

20 Q. Okay. So $875 less than a Level 1 dealer?

21 A. That -- that's -- yeah, that's close, yes.

22 Q. Okay. Then what is the fourth column, the 23 Friends column?

24 A. The Friends column is what Greg would want to 25 sell that to -- or provide the bike to for someone that

Page 30

1 may have been a celebrity or someone that he wanted to
2 make that third level that he would want to provide
3 that bike for, and that's what -- if I was going to 4 provide it to Bob Tobin, he would say, Okay, I want to 5 have Bob pay $2,503.

6 Q. Okay. So approximately $700 more than Greg
7 paid for the bike?

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

10 THE WITNESS: $700 more, yes.

11 Q. BY MR. WEBER: And that -- that would be 12 profit to Greg?

13 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

14 THE WITNESS: Yes.

15 Q. BY MR. WEBER: Let's move ahead to -- why
16 don't you set that price list to one side because we're 17 going to be referring back to it. Just put it off to 18 the side.

19 Let's move ahead several pages to Bates page
20 Gibson 383.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. And what is that? What are we looking at 23 here?

24 A. Right here we're looking at a -- a
25 cashier's -- a cashier's check.

Page 31

1 Q. Made payable to whom?

2 A. Payable to LeMond Cycling Inc.

3 Q. For how much?

4 A. For $2729.99.

5 Q. Okay. And does the check indicate what kind
6 of bike is being purchased?

7 A. It does. It's a Tete de Course, 51
8 centimeter.

9 Q. Okay. And if we refer back to the price
10 list, it appears that this person got a bike at the 11 Friends price, somewhat --

12 A. Well, over Level 1 price. Over wholesale
13 price, yes.

14 Q. Okay. So although Greg was able to get that 15 bike for $1800 -- I'm sorry --

16 A. That's right, 1804.

17 Q. -- 1804, this person paid 2729.99?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Let's move a few more pages in to Bates Page
20 399.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. What are we looking at here?

23 A. We are looking at another cashier's check for 24 $2,553 paid to the order of LeMond Cycling Inc. and --
25 jeez, and it's for -- from Tony Basuini for 155

1 centimeter Tete de Course.

2 Q. Does that reflect what that person paid for
3 the Tete de Course?

4 A. Yes, it does.

5 Q. Okay. And there is handwriting on there:
6 Sent to Muffy 8-13-01. Whose handwriting is that?

7 A. That's my handwriting.

8 Q. What does that note indicate?

9 A. That's a note that I sent that cashier's
10 check to Mary -- Muffy's name is Mary Hague. Mary
11 Hague was Greg's administrative assistant, and that 12 check was sent so Mary Hague on 8-13-01 for payment of 13 that bicycle to Greg.

14 Q. All right. So did you have an understanding
15 whether Mary Hague was aware of the transactions that 16 were going on in bicycles and the amounts that were 17 being charged to third parties for them?

18 A. She did.

19 Q. And what was your interaction with her when 20 it came to bike sales and -- and setting up price for a
21 particular purchaser?

22 A. The price -- the prices were always set by 23 Greg. I mean, he generally would say what to do. Mary
24 Hague apparently received the money. And at first it
25 was sort of -- it was done between myself, Greg and

1 myself and parties who wanted to buy bicycles. Then --
2 and I would speak to Elisabeth Huber at Trek
3 personally. And Greg changed that down the road -- and
4 I am not exactly sure what year that was but it could
5 have been like 2002 or 2003 -- where he no longer
6 wanted anyone to speak directly to Trek; that he would
7 speak to Mary Hague and Mary Hague would speak to Trek,
8 Elisabeth Huber who handled the ordering of bikes for 9 Trek on Trek's behalf.

10 Q. Did you have an understanding as to why Greg 11 made that change?

12 A. No. He -- well, he said -- he said it was 13 for bookkeeping purposes.

14 Q. Okay. Let's move ahead a few more pages to 15 Bates page Gibson 406.

16 A. Okay.

17 Q. And there is a check here from Kirk Bowman on 18 June 22nd, 2001. There is another transaction on the 19 page, but focusing on the Bowman transaction. What 20 transaction is documented here?

21 A. Well, this is a check, June 22nd, '01, made
22 out to LeMond Cycling Inc. for $2,550 for one 61
23 centimeter Tete de Course LeMond Ti bike for Kurt
24 Bowman and that was a bike -- a check for a bike that 25 Kurt Bowman was to receive.

1 Q. So what these people -- these people --
2 Mr. Bowman, again, was paying significantly more than 3 Mr. LeMond paid for the bike, right?

4 A. Yes.

5 MS. RAHNE: Object to the form.

6 THE WITNESS: Yes.

7 Q. BY MR. WEBER: In addition to Exhibit 132, I
8 also made copies of your other bike original documents.
9 First, take a look at the original folder and tell us
10 what it contains.

11 A. These are still memorandums from Trek and 12 photocopies of checks, and this is from 2002 to 2004.

13 Q. Okay. And were those documents that you
14 kept?

15 A. These are documents I kept, yes.

16 Q. Did you keep those documents in connection
17 with your work on behalf of Mr. LeMond?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what do those documents reflect?

20 A. These documents reflect bicycles that were 21 purchased from Greg or given away by Greg during that 22 period of time and it reflects the -- the -- throughout
23 via photocopy of the check what the individuals paid
24 for it. On some of these invoices from Trek -- or
