UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA
THIRD DIVISION

In re: Guidant Corp. Implantable
Defibrillators Products Liability Litigation

MDL No. 05-1708
(DWF/AJB)

This document relates to all actions.

NOTICE OF SERVICE OF SUBPOENAS DUCES TECUM

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT Plaintiffs, by their attorneys, will request the production of documents and notice the deposition of the following non-party:

Ronald W. Dollens
9701 Soaring Hawk Cir.
Zionsville, IN 46077-9789

See Exhibit 1. This request for production and notice of deposition will be made pursuant to subpoenas duces tecum issued to this non-party, will be signed by Plaintiffs' counsel, and will be issued and served from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana. Plaintiffs' counsel will provide Defendants' counsel with copies of all documents produced by the non-party.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the non-party, pursuant to Rule 45(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, may be held in contempt of court if he fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena served on him and that he has certain legal rights in response to Plaintiffs' subpoena as provided in Rule 45(c) and (d), which provisions are reproduced in full at page 2 of the subpoena.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: January 30, 2007

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,
- (ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

- (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
- (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or
- (iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

ATTACHMENT A

Definitions and Instructions

The following definitions and instructions shall be employed in responding to this Subpoena Duces Tecum (“Subpoena”) request for the production of documents:

- A. This Subpoena requires that Ronald W. Dollens produce all responsive documents in his possession, custody, or control, or in the possession, custody, or control of any of Ronald W. Dollens’ current or former employees, attorneys, agents, or other persons acting or purporting to act on his behalf.
- B. The term “you” or “yours” refers to Ronald W. Dollens and/or any of his employees, attorneys, agents, or other persons acting or purporting to act on his behalf.
- C. The term “Plaintiffs” refers to named and unnamed Plaintiffs or potential class members in the action, In re Guidant Corp. Implantable Defibrillators Products Liability Litigation, Civil Action No. 0:05-md-1708 (DWF-AJB), currently pending in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota.
- D. The term “Defendants” refers to Guidant Corporation, Guidant Sales Corporation, Cardiac Pacemakers, Inc., and Boston Scientific Corporation and those entities’ current and former officers, directors, employees, attorneys, agents, and other persons acting or purporting to act on their behalf.
- E. “All” means all or any, and “any” means all or any.
- F. “And” or “or” shall be construed either conjunctively or disjunctively to bring within the scope of the request any information that might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.
- G. As used herein, any word written in the singular shall be construed as plural and vice-versa, and any masculine word shall be construed as feminine or neuter and vice-versa as required by the context to bring within the scope of this Subpoena any documents and/or information that might be deemed outside the scope of a request by another construction.

H. "Relating to" means referring to, consisting of, reflecting, concerning, discussing, constituting, describing, analyzing, studying, evidencing, incorporating, or in any way pertaining to or having any logical or factual connection to the subject matter.

I. "Document" has the full extent of its meaning under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. "Documents" include both originals and copies, any and all drafts, and all copies that contain any notation not on the original. Examples of documents include, but are not limited to, handwritten, typed, or printed papers, handwritten notes, office notes, calendar entries, diaries, memoranda, press clippings, photographs, reports, deposition transcripts, deposition exhibits, receipts, invoices, correspondence, ledger entries, workpapers, audio and visual recordings, films, and computer printouts, cards, tapes, disks, and other types of electronically or magnetically maintained information.

J. Documents that are in paper form or that constitute other physical objects from which recorded information may be visually read, as well as electronic files, audio or video tapes and similar recordings, should be produced in their original form or in copies that are exact duplicates of the originals. Computer files and similar electronic records should be produced in an electronic or readable form mutually agreed upon by the parties.

K. If you object to any portion of any request in this Subpoena, you should identify the portion to which you object and respond to the remainder.

L. Unless otherwise indicated, this Subpoena includes requests for documents created or that came into your possession between January 1, 1995 and the date of this Subpoena.

M. The scope of this Subpoena includes all responsive documents that are within your custody or control, regardless of whether they are currently in your possession.

N. Documents should be produced either: (a) as they are kept in the ordinary course of business, complete with the original file folders, binders, or other containers in which they are stored (or legible copies of the labels from those folders, binders, or containers); or (b) organized according to the document request(s) in this Subpoena, to which they are responsive. If you elect the latter mode of production, each document or set of documents from a particular file, binder, or other container should be accompanied by a legible copy of the label from that container or some other reliable indicator of the file from which it was taken. If any portion of a document is responsive to any request, the entire document should be produced.

O. If you assert a claim of privilege as to one or more documents sought in this request, you should list, for each such document, the document's date, signatory or signatories, author(s), addressee(s), each other person who received a copy of such document, the subject matter of the document, its location and custodian, and the basis for the claim of privilege, including the identity of any and all clients on whose behalf the privilege is claimed. Such information should be supplied in sufficient detail to permit the Court to assess the applicability of the privilege claimed.
