I spoke to Pash who seemed generally OK with our proposal. As I understand it, Jeff will coordinate directly with Michael on the retiree issues.

We put in a call to Pash to try to find a time to do this. Our thinking is very simple. We would propose that the Brady plaintiffs cover the economic system issues: free agency rules and restrictions, rookie rules and restrictions; and the economic split (i.e., salary cap or no salary cap, revenue split with players, etc). Eller would make the proposal on the retired player issues. We do not want to cover anything that would only be in a CBA, such as the drug program, etc. We will let you know when we hear from Pash.

Gentlemen:

Before emailing the parties submissions due on Friday, May 27, please meet and confer with a view to agreeing on the list of the "points of discussion" that will be commented on. Also agree on the order in which each point will appear on the submissions.

Thank you.
