VI.

Defendant also failed to place a warning of the dangerous condition.

VII.

That the fall and resulting damages were directly and proximately caused by the negligence of the Defendant, and Defendant's employees in their failure to exercise a proper degree of care in the following respects, to-wit:

- A. Failing to maintain the store in a safe and reasonable manner;
- B. Failing to properly patrol the store in order to keep the Plaintiff safe;
- C. Failing to properly clean and maintain store;
- D. Failure to properly place a warning sign of the known dangerous condition;
- E. Failure to use reasonable care; and
- F. Failure of the Defendant to properly train its employees in how to maintain the store in a safe manner.

VIII.

As a direct and proximate result of the gross and reckless negligence of the Defendant and Defendant's employees in this action, Jamie A. Brown received permanent, painful and disabling injuries which have caused her to suffer great pain, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of wages and income, expense of medical care, emotional distress, and psychological injuries. In addition, Jamie A. Brown will be forced to continue to suffer great pain, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of wage-earning capacity, expense of medical care, emotional distress and psychological injuries for the remainder of her life.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant, Ryan's Restaurant Group, Inc. d/b/a Ryan's Grill Buffet & Bakery, in an amount within the jurisdictional limits of this Honorable Court for compensatory damages incurred by the Plaintiff, Jamie A. Brown, as the result of the gross and reckless negligence of the Defendant and Defendant's employees and for all which the Defendant, Ryan's Restaurant Group, Inc. d/b/a Ryan's Grill Buffet & Bakery, is liable, together with interest, attorney's fees and all court costs herein.

Respectfully submitted, this the 19th day of July, 2010.
