Plaintiff has filed its response stating that it has no objection to the Supplemental Report and requests that the Supplemental Report be approved by the Court and that the Receiver be discharged. People’s United Equipment Finance Corp. f/k/a Financial Federal Credit, Inc., (FFC), has filed its response stating that it agrees with the Receiver’s Supplemental Report that the balance of the funds held by Receiver remaining after the payment set out in the Supplemental Report to Receiver and his counsel should be distributed to FFCI.

There being no objections to the Receiver’s Supplemental Report and Renewed Request for Approval of Receiver’s Report and Discharge of Receiver, the Court approves the Receiver's Report and Orders the Receiver to disburse the funds for the Receiver and his counsel and distribute the remaining funds to FFCI. Upon the said payments and distributions, the Receiver is discharged without further order of Court.

Accordingly,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver shall disburse $8,500 to itself and $3,038.47, plus an additional amount for legal fees incurred after July 1, 2013, estimated to be less than $500.00 to Jenkins & Kling, PC

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver shall remit the balance of the liquidation proceeds held by Receiver to FFCI.
