Defendants.)

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

On December 12, 2011, the Court held a status conference in this matter in which attorneys Daniel S. Dooley, Roger W. Pecha, and James K. Mondl each participated by telephone. The parties informed the Court that settlement of all claims had been achieved through mediation and that the parties would soon file a joint notice of dismissal of all claims.

Therefore, based on the express oral consent of all parties involved, the Court orders that Defendant KeyCorp, effective immediately, is allowed to market, sell, or otherwise transfer the yacht and will not be sanctioned or otherwise held liable for spoliation of evidence for marketing, selling, or otherwise transferring the yacht.
