

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI
EASTERN DIVISION

IN RE K-V PHARMACEUTICAL            )   No. 4:11CV01816 AGF COMPANY SECURITIES LITIGATION    )

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the court on Lead Plaintiff Lori Anderson’s motion (Doc. No. 83) to lift a bankruptcy stay as it applies to non-bankrupt individual Defendants Gregory Divis, Thomas McHugh, and Scott Goedeke. For the reasons set forth below, the motion shall be granted.

DISCUSSION

Upon the filing of a notice of bankruptcy of Defendant K-V Pharmaceutical Company, the Court entered a stay in this matter. As Lead Plaintiff now argues, a bankruptcy stay cannot be extended against non-debtors “unless a case involves unusual circumstances.” See Ritchie Capital Mgmt., L.L.C. v. Jeffries, 653 F.3d 755, 762 (8th Cir. 2011). “The unusual circumstances in which the bankruptcy court can stay cases against non-debtors are rare.” Id. Such circumstances “typically arise where there is such identity between the debtor and the third-party defendant that the debtor may be said to be the real party defendant and that a judgment against the third-party defendant will in effect be a judgment or finding against the debtor.” Id. (citation omitted). Here, Defendants have presented no unusual circumstances to extend the stay against the non-bankrupt individual Defendants.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Lead Plaintiff's motion to lift the stay entered on Defendants as it applies to the non-bankrupt individual Defendants is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that on or before February 22, 2013, the parties shall submit a Joint Scheduling Plan setting forth a pleading and briefing schedule that accords with the requirements of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 ("PSLRA"). The parties shall include in the Joint Scheduling Plan a timetable for holding a Scheduling Conference pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16.
