

3. 4:16cv1894-ACL, Heintz v. Colvin
4. 4:17cv405-PLC, Goldstein v. Berryhill

In addition to those active cases, Mr. Olinsky has appeared regularly in this district since 2015, including the following cases that are now closed:

1. 1:15cv230-CDP, Wigfall v. Berryhill
2. 2:15cv43-PLC, York v. Colvin
3. 4:15cv1557-JAR, Anderson v. Colvin
4. 4:16cv1261-CDP, Konya v. Colvin

The Court believes that with this frequency of appearance, Mr. Olinsky is regularly employed in this district and, therefore, is not eligible for pro hac vice admission. Mr. Olinsky will be ordered to, within seven (7) days of the date of this order, either (1) file a verified statement that he will submit an application for admission to practice before this Court pursuant to Local Rule 12.01(C) no later than April 28, 2017, or (2) seek leave to withdraw his entry of appearance in this case.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that attorney Howard D. Olinsky shall, by April 14, 2017, either (1) file a verified statement that he will submit an application for admission to practice before this Court pursuant to Local Rule 12.01(C) by April 28, 2017, or (2) seek leave to withdraw his entry of appearance in this case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the motion for pro hac vice admission filed by Mr. Olinsky remains pending.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if Mr. Olinsky elects to seek leave to withdraw his entry of appearance in this case, he shall attach a copy of this order to any future motions for admission pro hac vice that he files in this district.

Dated this 7th day of April, 2017.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ronnie L. White". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line underneath the name.

RONNIE L. WHITE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE