AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Further answering the Amended Petition, and as additional defenses thereto, LegalZoom asserts the following additional defenses, without assuming the burden of proof when such burden would otherwise be on Plaintiffs. LegalZoom hereby incorporates all facts alleged in its Amended Answer to the Amended Petition into their Affirmative Defenses. LegalZoom reserves the right to further amend its Amended Answer and Affirmative Defenses as additional information becomes available.

60. Except as expressly admitted herein, LegalZoom denies each and every allegation in Plaintiffs' Amended Petition.

61. The Amended Petition fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

62. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the Amended Petition fails to satisfy the prerequisites for a class action.

63. All of Plaintiffs' claims based on the existence of an alleged deceptive or unfair practice by LegalZoom, including but not limited to the claims asserted in Counts Three and Four of the Amended Petition, are barred because LegalZoom did not engage in any deceptive or unfair practice.

64. The claims of the named plaintiffs and/or certain putative members of this collective and class action are barred by discharge in bankruptcy, estoppel, voluntary payment, statute of limitations, and/or waiver.

65. Plaintiffs' claims for any injunctive or declaratory relief are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs have not suffered irreparable harm.

66. The Amended Petition fails to set forth facts sufficient to constitute a claim for punitive or exemplary damages in that neither LegalZoom nor its agents, if any, acted with malice, fraud, oppression, or any other state sufficient to sustain punitive or exemplary damages with respect to Plaintiffs and the class Plaintiffs purportedly seek to represent.

67. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by federal preemption to the extent LegalZoom customers purchased forms and services related to patent, trademark, and copyright applications and other filings. Under federal law, specifically 35 U.S.C. sections 2 and 32, the Patent and Trademark Office has exclusive authority to establish qualifications for admitting persons to practice before it and to suspend or exclude them from practicing before it, and Missouri may not impose additional licensing requirements beyond those required by federal law to permit a patent agent to practice before the Patent and Trademark Office.

68. Plaintiffs' claims violate the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, which guarantees the right to petition the government and access to the courts and to legal knowledge and information, and protects the right to provide general legal information and basic instructions on how to prepare and use legal forms.

69. As applied to the allegations set forth in Plaintiffs' Amended Class-Action Petition, sections 484.010 and 484.020 RSMo. violate the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution, unduly and unreasonably impeding interstate commerce by attempting to regulate transactions taking place in California between a California merchant and customers residing in Missouri.

70. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the Full Faith and Credit Clause of the United States Constitution, which requires Missouri and its Courts to give full faith and credit to LegalZoom's registration in California as a Legal Document Assistant pursuant to Chapter 5.5 of the California Business and Professions Code, sections 6400 et seq.

71. Plaintiffs' punitive damages claims are unconstitutional and should be dismissed:

a. Missouri law has not established a definitive standard for setting the amount of punitive damages and, therefore, an award of punitive damages without requiring Plaintiffs to prove every element beyond a reasonable doubt or, in the alternative, by clear and convincing evidence, violates Defendant's due process rights under the U. S. Constitution, Amend. XIV, and the corresponding applicable due process provisions of the Missouri Constitution.

b. Because it is not subject to a predetermined limit, such as maximum multiple compensatory damages or a maximum amount, an award of punitive damages violates Defendant's due process rights under the U. S. Constitution, Amend. XIV, and corresponding applicable due process provisions of the Missouri Constitution.

c. An award of punitive damages violates Defendant's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the U. S. Constitution, Amend. XIV, and the double jeopardy clause of the U. S. Constitution, Amend. V, as incorporated into Amend. XIV, and a jury (1) is not provided a standard of sufficient clarity for determining the appropriateness, or the appropriate size, of a punitive damages award; (2) is not instructed on the limits of punitive damages imposed by the applicable principles of deterrents and punishment; (3) is not expressly prohibited from awarding punitive damages in whole or in part, on the basis of insidiously discriminatory characteristics, including the corporate status of the separate Defendant; (4) is permitted to award punitive damages under a standard for determining liability for punitive damages that is vague and arbitrary and does not define with sufficient clarity the conduct or mental state that makes punitive damages permissible; (5) is not subject to judicial review on the basis of objective standards; and (6) is not required to consider the character and degree of the alleged wrong.

d. An award of punitive damages under Missouri law for the purposes of compensating Plaintiffs for elements of damage not otherwise recognized by Missouri law violates Defendant's due process rights guaranteed by the U. S. Constitution, Amend. XIV, and by the corresponding applicable provisions of the Missouri Constitution.

e. An award of punitive damages under state law without the same protection that is accorded to all criminal defendants, including protection against unreasonable searches and seizures, double jeopardy, self-incrimination, the right to confront adverse witnesses, a speedy trial and the effective assistance of counsel violates Defendant's rights under the U. S.

Constitution, Amend. XIV and Amends. IV, V and VI, as incorporated into Amend. XIV, and under the corresponding applicable provisions of the Missouri Constitution.

72. LegalZoom reserves the right to further amend this Amended Answer and Defenses, including to assert additional defenses that may become known through discovery.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the Amended Petition, LegalZoom prays this Court enter judgment in its favor, that costs be assessed against Plaintiffs, and for such other relief as the Court shall deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
