ORDER

On March 25, 2014, the Court held a teleconference in this case. The Court clarifies, however, that its orders placing certain documents under seal and allowing other documents to be filed under seal are not final determinations that these documents are confidential and/or privileged. Rather, the Court makes these rulings to maintain the status quo while the Court analyzes the issues of confidentiality and/or privilege. Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED Defendant’s Motion to File Under Seal Defendant’s Motion To Claw Back Confidential Materials and Strike the Complaint (Doc. #9) is GRANTED. It is further

ORDERED JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.’s Sealed Motion to Claw Back Confidential Materials and Strike the Complaint (Doc. #12) is DENIED AS MOOT and WITHOUT PREJUDICE. It is further

Defendant shall file a reply on or before June 20, 2014. The argument section of the reply shall not exceed twelve (12) pages, and the reply shall be filed under seal. It is further ORDERED the parties and their counsel shall, until the Court resolves the privilege and confidentiality issues, treat the documents and information that are the subject of the privilege motion as confidential and refrain from any further dissemination of them.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
