ORDER

Pending before the Court is Plaintiff’s Motion for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis (Doc. 1), Affidavit of Financial Status, and the accompanying Complaint (“Complaint”). Plaintiff seeks compensation for alleged legal malpractice by the Defendant. Upon due consideration of the financial information provided in Plaintiff’s application, the Court finds that the Motion for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis (Doc. 1) is GRANTED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1) for a limited purpose so that the Court may consider the merits of the action. After having considered the Complaint, the Court finds that this action is hereby DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE because the Complaint fails to show that jurisdiction is appropriate in this Court.

Factual Background

In her Complaint Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to file documents in a timely manner, and the statute of limitations ran on her claim in a previous lawsuit where she had retained Defendant as counsel. Plaintiff further states she had been working on her case for over two years.

Analysis

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1), a pro-se plaintiff may request that the court authorize the commencement of an action without requiring the plaintiff to pay any fees, costs, or security. However, the opportunity to proceed in forma pauperis is not a right, but a privilege. See Martin-Trigona v. Stewart, 691 F.2d 856, 857 (8th Cir. 1982). Accordingly, leave to proceed in forma pauperis is generally denied unless the applicant satisfies two separate requirements. See id. First, the applicant must be sufficiently impoverished so as to qualify by “economic status” pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). If the applicant qualifies by economic status, the court then determines whether the applicant’s complaint is “frivolous or malicious,” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i) (2000), fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, id. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii), or seeks monetary relief against a party immune from such damages, id. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(iii), and if so, dismisses the complaint.

Under Local Rule 83.7(a)(3), the proper standard for determining poverty is whether the applicant would be forced to give up the basic necessities of life if required to pay the costs of the lawsuit. The court is afforded sound discretion when determining whether a plaintiff is sufficiently impoverished. See Cross v. Gen. Motors Corp., 721 F.2d 1152, 1157 (8th Cir. 1983).

Plaintiff states that she is a 36-year-old woman that is unemployed at the present time. She owes approximately $254.00 a month on her mortgage payment and has monthly expenses of approximately $340.00, not including the money she pays on her approximately $10,000.00 worth of credit card and loan debts. Plaintiff states she has $100.00 on hand. Based on her financial affidavit, the Court finds that if the Plaintiff were required to pay costs, she would have to give up the basic necessities of life as defined in the Code and Local Rule 83.7.

However, demonstrating poverty does not end the inquiry. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B), the Court may dismiss an action at any time if the action is frivolous, malicious, fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief. An action is held to be frivolous if “it lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact.” Nietzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 325, 109 S. Ct. 1827, 104 L. Ed. 2d 338 (1989). “An action fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted if it appears beyond reasonable doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief.” Taylor v. United States, No. 4:97CV2305, 1997 WL 1008226, at *1 (E.D. Mo. Dec. 18, 1997) (citing Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46, 78 S. Ct. 99, 2 L. Ed. 2d 80 (1957); Jackson Sawmill Co. v. United States, 580 F.2d 302, 306 (8th Cir. 1978)). When reviewing a pro se complaint under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B), the Court must give the complaint liberal construction and must weigh all well-pleaded factual allegations in favor of the plaintiff. Martin-Trigona v. Stewart, 691 F.2d 856, 858 (8th Cir. 1982); J.J. Jones Co. v. Reagan, No. 87-0167-CV-W-9, 1987 WL 10266, at *1 (W.D. Mo. Apr. 14, 1987).

Plaintiff’s Complaint fails to state a claim on this issue beyond a reasonable doubt. Plaintiff does not appear to allege a federal question that would make the jurisdiction of this court appropriate. Her claims appear to be singly based upon legal malpractice. Thus, the Court finds that Plaintiff fails to state a federal claim over which this Court has jurisdiction. See 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

Additionally, Plaintiff does not plead sufficient facts to invoke this Court’s diversity jurisdiction. For a federal court to hear cases based upon state law, the amount in controversy must be greater than $75,000 and the parties must be citizens of different states. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1); see also Owen Equip. & Erection Co. v. Kroger, 437 U.S. 365, 373-74, 98 S. Ct. 2396, 2403, 57 L.

Ed. 2d 274 (1978); Stanhope v. Ford Motor Credit Company, 483 F. Supp. 275, 277 (W.D. Ark. 1980) (discussing the concept of complete diversity). Defendant appears to be a resident of Missouri and his law firm is also located in Missouri. Therefore, even if Plaintiff's Complaint could raise any state law issues, it appears that the Court still would not have jurisdiction to hear them. Accordingly, the Court finds that beyond a reasonable doubt, Plaintiff's Complaint does not state a claim for which relief may be granted in this Court.

Conclusion

It is therefore ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (Doc. 1) and Affidavit of Financial Status requesting that Plaintiff be permitted to proceed in forma pauperis is hereby GRANTED.

2. The Clerk is directed to receive and file Plaintiff's Complaint and the accompanying exhibits without prepayment of the required filing fee.

3. Plaintiff's Civil Complaint is hereby DISMISSED without prejudice pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B) for failure to state a claim on which relief may be granted and for failure to allege sufficient facts establishing that this Court would have jurisdiction over the action.

The Clerk is directed to mail a copy of this Order to Plaintiff by regular mail at the following address:

Grace C. Stillwell
503 North Center Street
Willow Springs, Mo 65793

IT IS SO ORDERED.
