ORDER ADOPTING FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF
U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE

SPORTSMAN'S WAREHOUSE, )
INC., a Utah Corporation, )

Defendant. )

On June 30, 2010, United States Magistrate Judge Carolyn Ostby entered Findings and Recommendation. Magistrate Judge Ostby recommends this Court grant Defendant's Motion to Transfer Venue and this matter should be transferred to the United States District Court for the District of Delaware for referral to the United States Bankruptcy Court of said District.

Upon service of a magistrate judge's findings and recommendation, a party has 14 days to file written objections. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). In this matter, no party filed objections to the June 30, 2010 Findings and Recommendation. Failure to object to a magistrate judge's findings and recommendation waives all objections to the findings of fact. Turner v. Duncan, 158 F.3d 449, 455 (9th Cir. 1999). However, failure to object does not relieve this Court of its burden to review de novo the magistrate judge's conclusions of law. Barilla v. Ervin, 886 F.2d 1514, 1518 (9th Cir. 1989).

Defendant argues that this case should be transferred pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1412 or 28 U.S.C. § 1404 because it arises in or is related to the SWI bankruptcy proceedings. The following factors are to be considered in determining whether to grant a § 1412 transfer "in the interest of justice":

the variety of factors considered include the economics of estate administration, the presumption in favor of the "home court," judicial efficiency, the ability to receive a fair trial, the state's interest in having local controversies decided within its borders by those familiar with its laws, the enforceability of the judgment, and plaintiff's original choice of forum. See In re Bruno's, Inc., 227 B.R. [311,] 324-25 [(N.D. Ala. 1998)]. "[T]he most important consideration is whether the requested transfer would promote the economic and efficient administration of the estate." In re Commonwealth Oil Refining Co., 596 F.2d 1239, 1247 (5th Cir. 1979).

Reid-Ashman Manufacturing, Inc. v. Swanson Semiconductor Service, 2008 WL 425638 at *2 (quoting SenoRx, LLP, 2007 WL 2470125 at *1). "The party moving for a transfer has the burden to show by a preponderance of the evidence that transfer under § 1412 is warranted." Creekridge Capital, LLC v. Louisiana Hosp. Center, LLC, 410 B.R. 623, 629 (D. Minn. 2009). But, "[u]ltimately, the decision to transfer venue of a case under title 11 is committed to the discretion of the court.” Matter of Emerson Radio Corp., 173 B.R. 490, 495 (D. N.J. 1994), aff’d in In re Emerson Radio Corp., 52 F.3d 50 (3rd Cir. 1995); 28 U.S.C. § 1412.

Analysis of the relevant factors weigh in favor of transfer. Resolution of Plaintiffs’ claims will potentially have a significant impact on the bankruptcy estate. The home court is in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. Judicial efficiency will be served by administering all claims against the bankruptcy estate in one forum and the bankruptcy case remains pending in Delaware. Because this case is related to a bankruptcy case, Montana’s interest in having local controversies determined locally is diminished. At its core, this case implicates the interpretation, implementation and administration of the Delaware Bankruptcy Court’s orders and the Bankruptcy Code. The judgment will be enforceable whether issued by this Court or the Delaware Bankruptcy Court. Finally, the choice of forum consideration is not sufficient to override the other factors which weigh in favor of transfer.

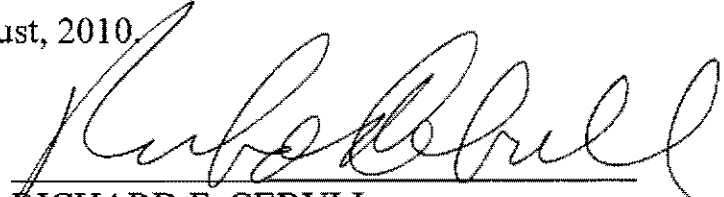

After an extensive review of the record and applicable law, this Court finds Magistrate Judge Ostby’s Findings and Recommendation are well grounded in law and fact and adopts them in their entirety.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the McGillis/Eckman Motion to Remand for lack of subject matter of jurisdiction (Doc. 10) is DENIED. SWI's Motion to Transfer Venue (Doc. 6) is GRANTED.

It is further ORDERED that the Clerk of Court shall transfer this case to the United States District Court for the District of Delaware for referral to the United States Bankruptcy Court of said District, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(a).

The Clerk of Court shall notify the parties of the entry of this Order.

DATED the 9th day of August, 2010.
