

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA
BUTTE DIVISION

BRETT HALL,)	Cause No. CV-17-17-BU-BMM
)
Plaintiff,)
)
vs.)	STIPULATED PROTECTIVE
)	ORDER AMERICAN NATIONAL)
PROPERTY AND CASUALTY CO.,)
)
Defendant.)
_____)

Upon stipulation of the parties, and good cause shown, this Court enters the following Protective Order, to govern the discovery and protection of confidential proprietary information, copyrighted and/or commercial information, which may be and has been subject to discovery in this action:

1. This Protective Order governs the access to, use, and distribution of information designated as "Confidential" in this litigation. For purposes of this Protective Order, "information" or "materials" includes documents, things, pleadings, discovery responses, deposition testimony, and all other discovery materials.

2. This Protective Order shall also govern all discovery materials and/or papers filed with the Court in this case which include or make reference to any information designated as "Confidential" by a party. This Protective Order shall also govern all information derived from such documents and all copies, excerpts, or summaries of them.

3. Information may be deemed "Confidential" if it contains trade secrets or other non-public, proprietary, or competitively sensitive research, development, financial, or commercial information, or information that, if publicly disclosed, could be used to the competitive detriment of a party or would violate the parties' respective confidentiality and/or privacy policies and/or agreements, including without limitation policies and/or agreements with employees, customers, or third parties.

4. All "Confidential" information shall be treated as confidential during and throughout the pendency of this action. Confidential information shall be used by the non-producing party solely for the purposes of this litigation and not for any other purpose. Control and distribution shall be the responsibility of the attorneys of record.

5. The parties shall not disclose information derived from such

Confidential information to any person except as provided in this Protective Order. Confidential materials and information derived from them may be inspected and disclosed by the parties only to the following persons and only for the purposes of conducting this litigation:

- (a) The parties, their counsel in this lawsuit, and counsel's employees;
- (b) Any person retained by counsel representing the parties to assist in the preparation of trial of this litigation, including experts and paralegals;
- (c) Any employee or representative of American National Property and Casualty Company (“American National”) whose deposition is taken or is to be taken in this action during the course of his or her testimony; and
- (d) Deposition reporters.

Court personnel are not subject to this Protective Order while engaged in the performance of their official duties.

6. Each person to whom disclosure of Confidential documents and information is permitted by the parties pursuant to paragraph 5 above shall be shown a copy of this Protective Order and shall execute an acknowledgment in writing that he or she has received a copy of this Protective Order and is familiar with the provisions of it, and all such persons shall:

- (a) Be bound thereby;
- (b) Not use any document or information for any purpose other than in connection with the prosecution of this action;
- (c) Not reveal such document or information to any person other than a person who has received a copy of this Agreement and is subject to its provisions; and
- (d) On termination of his or connection with the action, return such Confidential document or information to the counsel who disclosed it in the first instance or destroy the Confidential document or information and certify the documents have been destroyed.

7. Before any party files a motion or other document with the Court that would reveal any portion of the contents of the Confidential information, such party shall provide at least ten (10) days written notice of such filing, detailing by Bates range the precise documents or information to be filed. If the party designating the documents or information as Confidential files a motion to seal some or all of the documents or information within ten (10) days of such written notice, the motion or document at issue shall not be filed pending further order of the Court.

8. The admissibility, confidentiality, and use of all Confidential information at trial shall be subject to the orders of the Court.

9. A party producing or disclosing information may invoke this Protective Order's protection by following the procedures set forth below:

- (a) With respect to documents, the copy of the document, when produced, shall bear the clear and legible designation "Confidential" on each page as to which the designating party seeks the protection of this Protective Order. To the extent a document contains some "Confidential" information and some non-confidential information, a party may designate the entire document for treatment as "Confidential" within the scope of this Protective Order.
- (b) With respect to answers to interrogatories or requests for admissions, the specific responses containing "Confidential" information shall be clearly marked.
- (c) With respect to any deposition, such treatment may be invoked by: (1) declaring the same on the record at the deposition and, thereafter, by designating the specific portions of testimony as "Confidential" within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the transcript of the deposition in which the designations are made;

or (2) designating specific portions of testimony as "Confidential" and serving such designations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the transcript of the deposition in which the designations are made. The entirety of all deposition transcripts shall be treated as "Confidential" for the thirty (30) day period following receipt of the transcript.

- (d) If information deemed "Confidential" is inadvertently produced without the designation "Confidential," a party may nevertheless timely assert the confidentiality of the information upon learning of the inadvertent disclosure by providing written notice of such to all parties. The parties agree that the same protocol will apply to the inadvertent production of privileged documents and/or materials as well, and, upon receiving written notice from the designating party, all inadvertently produced privileged material will either be returned or destroyed, as instructed by the written notice.

10. If a party or counsel for a party disputes whether a document or other material should be marked "Confidential," the challenging party shall notify the producing party within 30 days of the production of confidential document.

Counsel for the parties shall attempt to resolve any dispute between themselves. If they are unsuccessful, the party or counsel challenging the “Confidential” designation shall do so by filing an appropriate motion with the Court. Any document so marked as “Confidential” will continue to be treated as such pending determination by the Court as to its confidential status.

11. In the event that a party is requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents in legal proceedings, subpoena, civil investigative demand or other similar process or by applicable laws, rules or regulations) to disclose any information designated "Confidential," the party shall provide all other parties with prompt written notice of the request or requirement within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the same, so that the other parties may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Protective Order. If, in the absence of a protective order or other remedy or the receipt of a waiver by the other parties, the party is, upon advice of counsel, nonetheless legally compelled to disclose "Confidential" information, the party may, without risk of liability hereunder, disclose that portion of the "Confidential" information that counsel advises must be disclosed provided that timely written notice of the request or requirement has been made within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the same to the other parties.

12. Sanctions may be granted by the Court for improper use or dissemination of any information produced subject to this Protective Order.

Sanctions may be imposed by the Court on its own motion or on motion by a party.

13. Within 90 days of the conclusion of this matter including all appeals therefrom, each "Confidential" document, including all copies of each document and all excerpts or summaries of them, shall be either returned to the party producing or designating the document, or destroyed. If the documents are destroyed, rather than returned, the party and its counsel destroying the documents shall provide a written certification that all copies have been destroyed or erased if stored electronically. Notwithstanding the foregoing, latent data such as deleted files, and other non-logical data types, such as memory dumps, swap files, temporary files, printer spool files, and metadata that can only be retrieved by computer forensics experts and is generally considered inaccessible without the use of specialized tools and techniques, will not be within the requirements for return or destruction of Confidential information as set forth by this provision.

DATED this 17th day of July, 2017.

Brian Morris
United States District Court Judge