Defendants.

Cause No. CV-10-76-GF-SEH

AFFIDAVIT OF DARLENE WILLIAMS

DARLENE WILLIAMS, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. My name is Darlene Williams, and I am the widow of Maurice Williams. My husband Maurice passed away in May of this year. We were married for fifty-four (54) years.

2. The SUE T.rex fossil was discovered in 1990 on land held in trust by the United States Department of the Interior for my husband, Maurice Williams.

3. Before the SUE T.rex fossil was sold to the Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago, Illinois (“The Field Museum”), title to the SUE T.rex fossil was held in trust by the United States Department of the Interior for my husband, Maurice Williams.

4. I can attest to the fact that at no time did my husband grant any casting or molding rights to the SUE T.rex fossil to Peter Larson or the Black Hills Institute of Geological Research, Inc. In fact, my husband did not grant casting or molding rights to SUE T.rex to anyone prior to the sale of the fossil to The Field Museum. He would not have granted such permission without authorization from the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Dated this 29 day of August, 2011.
