United States will either voluntarily dismiss the matter or seek default by no later than August 31, 2017.”⁷

ORDERED:

1. The United States’ self-conferred and invoked delay in proceedings is not authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, is contrary to efficient administration of justice, and is unacceptable to the Court.

2. More than three months have elapsed since answers were due from several of the Defendants. Further delays are neither necessary or appropriate.

3. Plaintiff, forthwith and without further delay, shall immediately undertake all steps necessary to either move for default of Defendants Troy S. Powers, Bonnie Powers f/k/a Bonnie Hamill, Opportunity Bank of Montana f/k/a American Federal Savings Bank, Collection Bureau Services, Inc., State of Montana, Department of Public Health and Human Services, Child Support Division, State of Montana and City of Helena or to
