Dear Shannon,

While I wish to thank your firm for preparing this document, the essential part of the order requested is to protect from information irrelevant from the case on November 4, 2009.

This information includes information which is public in nature, not confidential, due to disposition on October 15, 2010 per Montana Statute. This firm lost a public information case, and should be aware of standards of public information. I do not agree with this order, due to it helping Defense parties, not protecting me from the improper inclusion of material not relevant to the case. I have not received any compel order, contrary to Mr. Crowley's note; his credibility is that of a lawyer.

This firm continues to commit fraud with public funds, give false information, and possibly tamper with my mail.

Are rules and laws that hard to follow?

Michael Spreadbury

Subject: Spreadbury v. Bitterroot Public Library

SENT ON BEHALF OF WILLIAM L. CROWLEY, ESQ.

Dear Mr. Spreadbury:

Attached is a proposed Protective Order. It reflects protective orders issued in other civil rights cases before Judge Lynch and Judge Molloy. Please advise if it is agreeable to you. If so, we will prepare a stipulation that says, in effect, that the parties agree to the Protective Order. We will then present it to the Court for the Court's consideration and adoption. Copies of this email and the proposed Protective Order are being provided to Mr. Smith for his consideration as well.

Sincerely,

William L. Crowley

Dear those involved with the "Protective Order"

I do not agree with any of the wording of this document, it is self serving for the Defense and has no implications to what is referred to a protective order in FRCP.
Thank you for your time, but there will be no agreement for this document to be presented.
