Comments:

Dear Leanne, and associates:

Enclosed are two articles for review for possible case for defamation.

To review: sitting on public property is not trespassing, the 2007 "alleged assault" was dismissed in January 2008, published 9/10/10 by Ravalli Republic.

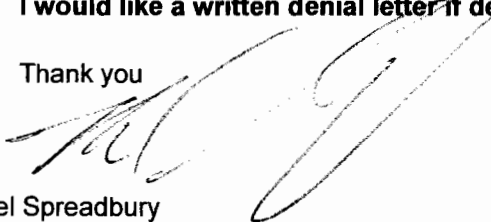

Republic, Missoulian published comments about mental illness, psychological health in 33 articles since 2007= repetitive republication of defamatory material.

Re-publishing criminal charge, such as trespassing, dismissed August 2010; peaceful assembly is a protected activity in the Montana, US Constitution.

This is an attempt to redress my injury, seeking help from your law firm.

I would like a written denial letter if denied from your firm. Address is above.

Thank you

Michael Spreadbury
