LEE ENTERPRISES, INC.,)	MEDICAL FILE
BOONE KARLBERG, PC,)
_____)

Comes now Spreadbury with affidavit to court to clarify medical information which has been falsely published in the aforementioned, defames the Plaintiff.

First being sworn, Michael Spreadbury states as follows:

1. I am Michael E. Spreadbury Plaintiff in this case.

2. In 2006 I saw Dr. Wahlberg Ph'd Psychologist solely for a two hour vocational assessment in Missoula, Montana.
3. Dr. Wahlberg was not my medical provider, nor offered a medical diagnosis, but a professional impression from subjective multiple choice tests I took at his direction in the limited time and scope we met.
4. Jerry Zook, M.A. is a Vocational Specialist in Hamilton Montana who referred me to Dr. Wahlberg for the vocational assessment.
5. Mr. Zook incorrectly identified and published Dr. Wahlberg's impression as a complete medical diagnosis of "Personality Disorder" which is unfounded as a medical condition attributed to me.
6. The Social Security Administration, in handling my case for disability added Dr. Wahlberg's impression as full medical diagnosis unknown to me prior to Defendant's repeated false publication of my confidential information in this case in violation of FRCP 45, 26, lawful controlling authority, ethics.
7. My licensed medical provider Dr. Fincaas, rejected the diagnostic impression Dr. Wahlberg had in session with me as I specifically asked about Dr. Wahlberg's impression from 2006 saying he "took it off".
8. Dr. Wahlberg's 2006 impression is not an official medical diagnosis, rejected by my medical provider, a false interpretation of my medical file.

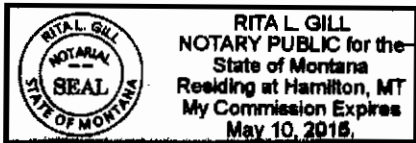

9. My confidential medical information, although released in this case is to be protected, not published, exposed; especially false confidential information.

10. Defense counsel does not have license to publish any of my confidential information, false or not; information from Dr. Wahlberg (psychologist) is not a medical diagnosis, it was rejected by my medical doctor in #7 above.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAITH NOT.
