

EXHIBIT E

I, Michael Spreadbury do attest that the following is true and I swear to this with a penalty of perjury if these facts are not true.

Recall Petition:

To the Honorable Regina Plettenberg, Ravalli County Election Administrator:

We the undersigned qualified electors of Ravalli County, Montana respectfully petition that an election be held as provided by law on the question of whether George H. Corn, holding the office of Ravalli County Attorney should be recalled for the following reasons:

INCOMPETENCE:

The County Attorney committed state and federal constitutional crimes against Ravalli County residents to improperly prosecute them in court. The County Attorney did not take action when approached pertaining to ongoing criminal endangerment. This endangerment is from continuous violation of state fire code from July 2006 to April 2007; the County Attorney being aware of these violations from two visits from the Deputy State Fire Marshall in October 2006 and taking no legal action to protect Ravalli County residents from danger, even when petitioned by 10 neighbors within 1/4 mile.

OATH OF OFFICE:

Ravalli County Attorney has violated his sworn oath of office by not upholding the Montana Constitution Article II Section III; inalienable rights granted to all Montana citizens. The Ravalli County Attorney has not protected citizen's right to 1) a healthy environment and 2) their State protected right to protect property from attack. Count 1 of this evidence of this is allowing toxic chemicals and smoke to inundate the property at 291 Cooper Lane which forced evacuations and eventual fleeing property in late October, 2006. Count 2 involves attempting to prosecute an individual who protected his property from attack on October 10, 2006.

Signed this 26th day of January, 2009
