Plaintiff Menard, Inc., (“Menard”) and Defendant Terry L. Clauff (“Clauff”) have moved that the Court enter a protective order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). The Court has determined that the terms set forth herein are appropriate to protect the respective interests of the parties, the public, and the Court. Accordingly, it is ORDERED:

1. Scope. All information and documents produced by Clauff in conjunction to the proceedings in aid of execution of judgment (“Judgment Execution Proceedings”), which may be subject to restrictions on disclosure for good cause and information derived directly therefrom (hereinafter collectively “Documents”), shall be subject to this Order concerning confidential information as set forth below. The Order is also subject to the applicable rules of procedure and local rules on matters of procedure and calculation of time periods.

2. Form and Timing of Designation. Clauff may designate Documents as confidential and restricted in use and disclosure under this Order by placing or affixing the words “CONFIDENTIAL” on the document in a manner that will not interfere with the legibility of the document. Documents shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL prior to or at the time of the production or disclosure of the documents. Any document produced by Clauff prior to entry of this Order may be designated and deemed confidential subject the terms of this Order by identifying each such document in writing within twenty (20) days of the date this Order is entered. The designation “CONFIDENTIAL” does not mean that the Document has any status or protection by statute or otherwise except to the extent and for the purposes of this Order.

Additionally, if the CONFIDENTIAL documents contain highly sensitive trade secrets or other highly sensitive competitive or confidential information and disclosure to Menard would result in demonstrable harm to Clauff, then Clauff may add the additional designation of “CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” The documents designated “CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall constitute an additional category of protection that carries all of the same protections as documents designated “CONFIDENTIAL” and the additional protections as outlined in ¶ 6(c) below.

3. Documents Which May be Designated CONFIDENTIAL. Clauff may designate Documents as CONFIDENTIAL upon a good faith belief that the documents contain information protected from disclosure by statute or that should be protected from disclosure as confidential personal or business information, medical or psychiatric information, trade secrets, personnel records, or such other sensitive commercial and/or financial information that is not publicly available.

4. Documents Which May be Designated CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY EYES ONLY. Clauff may designate any document as CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY EYES ONLY upon a good faith belief that the document contains highly sensitive trade secrets or other highly sensitive competitive or confidential information and disclosure to Menard would result in demonstrable harm to Clauff or related business entities.

5. Depositions. Deposition testimony and testimony during a Debtor’s Exam shall be deemed CONFIDENTIAL only if designated as such within 30 days of receipt of the deposition transcript, in writing. Such designation shall be specific as to the portions of the transcript or any exhibit to be designated as CONFIDENTIAL. Thereafter, the transcripts and any those portions so designated shall be protected as CONFIDENTIAL, pending objection, under the terms of this Order. However, a party may designate any portion of the deposition or debtor's exam as testimony is being taken, in which case any individual not authorized to access Documents with such designation shall leave the room.

6. Protection of Confidential Material.

(a) General Protections. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL under this Order shall not be used or disclosed by the parties, counsel for the parties or any other persons identified in ¶ 6(b) for any purpose whatsoever other than to prepare for and to conduct discovery related to the Judgment Execution Proceedings, including any appeal thereof.

(b) Limited Third-Party Disclosures. The parties and counsel for the parties shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of any CONFIDENTIAL Documents to any third person or entity except as set forth in subparagraphs (1)-(5). Subject to these requirements, the following categories of persons may be allowed to review Documents that have been designated CONFIDENTIAL:

(1) Counsel. Counsel (or the employees and agents of Counsel) who have responsibility for the preparation and representation during the Judgment Execution Proceedings and are not employees of a party;

(2) Parties. Parties and employees of a party to this Order. In-house attorneys, who are employees of a party, are included in the definition of the term Parties, and are specifically excluded from the term Counsel.

(3) Court Reporters and Recorders. Court reporters and recorders engaged for depositions and debtor's exams;

(4) Consultants, Investigators and Experts. Consultants, investigators, or experts (hereinafter referred to collectively as "experts") employed by the parties or counsel for the parties to assist in matters directly related to the Judgment Execution Proceedings, but only after such persons have completed the certification contained in Attachment A, Acknowledgment of Understanding and Agreement to Be Bound; and

(5) Others by Consent. Other persons only by written consent of the producing party or upon order of the Court and on such conditions as may be agreed or ordered. All such persons shall execute the certification contained in Attachment A, Acknowledgment of Understanding and Agreement to Be Bound.

(c) Disclosure of Documents Designated "CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY EYES ONLY": Counsel for the parties shall not disclose any documents designated "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY EYES ONLY" to any other person unless authorized by the producing party in writing.

(d) Control of Documents. Counsel for the parties shall take reasonable and appropriate measures to prevent unauthorized disclosure of documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to the terms of this Order. Counsel shall maintain the originals of the forms signed by persons acknowledging their obligations under this Order for a period of 1 year after dismissal of the action, the entry of final judgment and/or the conclusion of any appeals arising therefrom.

(e) Copies. Prior to production to another party, all copies, electronic images, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions (hereinafter referred to collectively as ("copies")) of Documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL under this Order, or any individual portion of such a document, shall be affixed with the designation “CONFIDENTIAL” if the word does not already appear on the copy. All such copies shall thereafter be entitled to the protection of this Order. The term "copies" shall not include indices, electronic databases or lists of documents provided these indices, electronic databases or lists do not contain substantial portions or images of the text of confidential documents or otherwise disclose the substance of the confidential information contained in those documents.

(f) All information derived from Documents designated pursuant to this Confidentiality Protective Order is also considered “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY EYES ONLY” as the Documents from which it was derived.

(g) Inadvertent Production. Inadvertent production of any document or information without a designation of “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be governed by the applicable rules of procedure.

7. Filing of CONFIDENTIAL Documents Under Seal. The Court highly discourages the manual filing of any pleadings or documents under seal. To the extent that a brief; memorandum or pleading references any document marked as CONFIDENTIAL, then the brief, memorandum or pleading shall refer the Court to the particular exhibit filed under seal without disclosing the contents of any confidential information as provided for by local rule and related filing procedures.

(a) Before any Document designated pursuant to the terms herein is filed under seal with the Clerk, the filing party shall first consult with the party that produced and designated the Document as CONFIDENTIAL to determine whether, with the consent of that party, the document or a redacted version of the document may be filed with the Court not under seal.

(b) Where agreement is not possible or adequate, when a Document is filed with the Clerk, it shall be filed pursuant to the court’s rules regarding the electronic submission of confidential or restricted documents, on which shall be endorsed with the caption of the litigation, and a notation that the contents are subject to this protective order.

(c) To the extent that it is necessary for a party to discuss the contents of any confidential information in a written pleading, then such portion of the pleading may be filed under seal with leave of Court. In such circumstances, Counsel shall prepare two versions of the pleadings, a public and a confidential version. The public version shall contain a redaction of references to Documents. The confidential version shall be a full and complete version of the pleading and shall be filed with the Clerk under seal as above.

(d) If any party notifies another party that they intend or need to file one or more of the Protected Documents in response to a motion previously filed, the party who filed such motion specifically agrees to provide whatever extension or continuance is necessary to file such response to allow for compliance with paragraph. Specifically, upon reasonable request, the parties agree to provide an extension or continuance for the filing of any response to any motion to provide appropriate time to comply with applicable law regarding filing such documents under seal.

8. Challenges by a Party to Designation as Confidential. Any CONFIDENTIAL and CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY EYES ONLY designation are subject to challenge by any party or nonparty with standing to object (hereafter "party"). Before filing any motions or objections to a confidentiality designation with the Court, the objecting party shall have an obligation to meet and confer in a good faith effort to resolve the objection by agreement. If agreement is reached confirming or waiving the designation as to any Documents subject to the objection, the designating party shall serve on all parties a notice specifying the Documents and the nature of the agreement.

9. Action by the Court. Applications to the Court for an order relating to any Documents designation shall be by motion under the applicable rules of procedure and local rules of the Court and any other procedures set forth in the presiding judge's standing orders or other relevant orders. Nothing in this Order or any action or agreement of a party under this Order limits the Court's power to make any orders that may be appropriate with respect to the use and disclosure of any documents produced or use in discovery or at trial.

10. Use of Confidential Documents or Information During Hearings or Other Proceedings Open to the Public. The Court shall enter a separate order regarding the use of Documents during any Hearings or other proceedings open to the public that is not inconsistent with the protections on use and disclosure provided herein.

11. Obligations on Conclusion of Litigation.

(a) Order Remains in Effect. Unless otherwise agreed or ordered, this Order shall remain in force after dismissal or entry of satisfaction of judgment not subject to further appeal or after applicable appeals.

(b) Return of CONFIDENTIAL Documents. Within thirty days after dismissal or entry of satisfaction of judgment not subject to further appeal, all Documents designated under this Order, including copies as defined in ¶ 6(e), and all information derived therefrom shall be returned to the producing party unless: (1) the document has been offered into evidence or filed without restriction as to disclosure; OR (2) the party in possession of such document(s) elects to destroy the Documents and certifies to the producing party that it has done so. Notwithstanding the above requirements to return or destroy Documents, Counsel may retain attorney work product, including an index which refers or relates to Documents, so long as that work product does not duplicate verbatim substantial portions of the text or images of confidential documents. This work product shall continue to be CONFIDENTIAL under this Order. An attorney may use his or her work product in a subsequent litigation provided that its use does not disclose or use Documents.

(c) Return of Documents Filed under Seal. After dismissal or entry of satisfaction of judgment not subject to further appeal, the Clerk may elect to return to Counsel for the parties or, after notice, destroy Documents filed or offered at trial under seal or otherwise restricted by the Court as to disclosure.

12. Order Subject to Modification. This Order shall be subject to modification by the Court on its own motion or on motion of a party or any other person with standing concerning the subject matter.

13. Persons Bound. This Order shall take effect when entered and shall be binding upon all Counsel and their law firms, the parties, and persons made subject to this Order by its terms.
