FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

PROGRESSIVE NORTHERN
INSURANCE CO.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JOSE CARMONA, et al.,

Defendants.

4:15-CV-3000

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the plaintiff's unopposed motion for default judgment against Poudre Valley Medical Group, LLC d/b/a Colorado Health Medical Group and Medical Center of the Rockies ("Poudre Valley") (filing 78).

Rule 55 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure contemplates a two-step procedure for the entry of default judgments. First, pursuant to Rule 55(a), the party seeking a default judgment must have the Clerk of Court enter a default by showing that the opposing party has failed to plead or otherwise defend. Second, pursuant to Rule 55(b), the moving party may seek entry of judgment on the default under either subdivision (b)(1) or (b)(2) of the Rule. The Clerk of Court has entered a default against Poudre Valley (filing 81).

When a default is entered, facts alleged in the complaint—except as to damages—may not be later contested. Marshall v. Baggett, 616 F.3d 849, 852 (8th Cir. 2010); Murray v. Lene, 595 F.3d 868, 871 (8th Cir. 2010). But before entering a default judgment, the Court must consider whether the unchallenged facts constitute a legitimate cause of action, since a party in default does not admit mere conclusions of law. Murray, 595 F.3d at 871. It is, therefore, incumbent upon the Court to ensure that the unchallenged facts constitute a legitimate cause of action before entering final judgment. Marshall, 616 F.3d at 852–53. Having examined the complaint, the Court concludes that Progressive Northern Insurance Co. has stated a claim for interpleader. See 28 U.S.C. § 1335.

Accordingly, the Court finds that default judgment is appropriate. In the context of an interpleader action, a defendant against whom a default judgment has been entered forfeits any claim of entitlement that it might have asserted. See Gulf Coast Galvanizing, Inc. v. Steel Sales, Co., 826 F. Supp. 197, 203 (S.D. Miss. 1993) (quoting General Accident Grp. v. Gagliardi, 593 F. Supp. 1080, 1089 (D. Conn. 1984)); see also Nationwide Mut. Fire Ins.

Co. v. Eason, 736 F.2d 130, 133 n.4 (4th Cir. 1984) ("[I]f all but one named interpleader defendant defaulted, the remaining defendant would be entitled to the fund.").

Finally, the Court concludes that under the circumstances of this case, no hearing or notice to Poudre Valley is necessary before entering a default judgment: Poudre Valley has not appeared, and the interpleader relates to a sum certain.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The plaintiff's unopposed motion for default judgment (filing 78) is granted.
2. Judgment is entered in favor of Progressive Northern Insurance Co., and against Poudre Valley Medical Group, LLC d/b/a Colorado Health Medical Group and Medical Center of the Rockies, finding that it is not entitled to any share of the judgment proceeds in the underlying interpleader action.

Dated this 8th day of April, 2016.

BY THE COURT:

John M. Gerrard
United States District Judge
