

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

4:18-CV-3080

IN RE MLLD FARMS, INC.,

BANKRUPTCY NO. BK17-40782

Debtor.

ORDER

This case is before the Court on the debtor's notice of appeal (filing 1). Appeals from bankruptcy court decisions must comply with 28 U.S.C. § 158 and federal and local bankruptcy rules. NEGenR 1.5\(c\). Accordingly, the debtor, as the appellant, shall designate the record on appeal and order a transcript of the relevant proceedings as provided by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8009. When the record is complete, the parties shall brief the merits of the appeal as provided by the bankruptcy rules, within the time specified by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8018 unless expedited briefing is requested. The appeal should be briefed by both the debtor and the objecting creditor, Giltner State Bank.

In addition, the Court has preliminary questions regarding the timeliness of the appeal and the appealability of the underlying order. Specifically, the Court notes that the appeal was taken within 14 days of the bankruptcy court's denial of a motion to reconsider, but 30 days after the bankruptcy court's initial denial of the debtor's motion. The Court would like the parties to address whether the motion to reconsider was a tolling motion pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8002\(b\). Furthermore, the Court's jurisdiction to hear bankruptcy appeals is limited, as relevant, to "final judgments, orders, and decrees" and "other interlocutory orders and decrees" with leave of the Court. 28 U.S.C. § 158. So, the Court must determine whether an order denying permission to incur debt pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 364 is a final order.

Alternatively, the Court must decide whether leave should be given for an interlocutory appeal. See Matter of Zech, 185 B.R. 334, 336-37 (D. Neb. 1995); *see also First Sec. Bank & Tr. Co. v.
