5. Motions in Limine.

a. Motions in limine challenging the admissibility of expert testimony at trial under Federal R. Evid. 702, See, Kumho Tire Co., Ltd. v. Carmichael, 526 U.S. 137 (1999) and Daubert v. Merrell-Dow Pharmaceuticals., 509 U.S. 579 (1993), shall be filed by November 13, 2009 and accompanied by a request for a hearing if necessary. b. In the event the parties mediate their dispute, notice of the mediation shall be given to the staff of the magistrate judge's office. The filing of a mediation reference order will terminate pending motions, without prejudice to refile. 9. Motions to alter dates. All requests for changes of deadlines or settings established herein shall be directed to the magistrate judge by appropriate motion, including all requests for changes of trial dates. Such motions shall not be considered in the absence of a showing by counsel of due diligence in the timely development of this case for trial and the recent development of circumstances, unanticipated prior to the filing of the motion, which require that additional time be allowed.

10. Report on Mediation: Not later than September 30, 2009 counsel shall report by letter or telephone call to the office of the undersigned: (a) the name of the mediator or other neutral facilitator they have hired for their mediation in this case; (b) the date the mediation is scheduled; and (c) the parties' agreement on whether the progression of the case otherwise ordered herein should be stayed pending the outcome of the mediation. The court will then enter an appropriate mediation reference order. In the event any party objects to the entry of a mediation reference order, such party shall, also not later than September 30, 2009, notify the undersigned by letter of the objection and the grounds therefor. In the event a mediation reference order is entered notwithstanding the party's informal objection, a formal objection may be filed not later than seven days following the filing of the mediation reference order and shall comply with paragraph 3(f) of the court's Mediation Plan (as amended January 30, 2004).
