

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

IN RE REFUNDS OF FILING FEES IN ) CASES INVOLVING THE FEDERAL ) ORDER
DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION )

On February 17, 2012, the Clerk’s Office received guidance from the Administrative Office that the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has a statutory exemption from federal court filing fees. As a result of this information, the clerk’s office researched all cases filed in the District of Nebraska since March 17, 2004, to determine if any refunds should be authorized as a result the information received from the Administrative Office. Four cases were identified.

Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that the $350.00 filing fee be refunded to the law firms initiating lawsuits on behalf of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in the following cases:

- 4:10CV3182 Robey v. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
- 8:10CV437 Carter v. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
- 8:11CV106 Jacobs, et al. v. PT Holdings, et al.
- 8:11CV229 Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation v. Jacobs, et al.

DATED 23rd day of April, 2012.
