This matter is before the Court on the Stipulation of the parties for the entry of a Protective Order regarding a video from a locomotive taken on or about January 21, 2010 at or near Columbus, Nebraska. The Court finds that a Protective Order should be granted. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the video from the locomotive taken on or about January 21, 2010 at or near Columbus, Nebraska shall not be disclosed, produced or disseminated to anyone who is not involved in this case by plaintiff or his legal counsel. The Court further orders that plaintiff and his legal counsel shall not allow this video to be disseminated to the Internet or any other electronic media. The Court further orders that plaintiff and his legal counsel shall ensure that if the video is given to any consultant, witness, expert witness or employee, that these individuals shall be advised of this Protective Order and shall be bound by the same, and further that they shall not disseminate the video to the Internet, any outside electronic media, or any other individuals. The Court further orders that at the conclusion of this case, the original disc containing the video and any and all copies of the disc, video, software, or any other portion of the disc shall be immediately returned to the defendant.

DATED this 18th day of September, 2012.
