

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

BRENDA LEE SNEED,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CAROLYN W. COLVIN, Acting
Commissioner of the Social Security Administration,

Defendant.

8:13-CV-50

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the Court on its own motion. On February 14, 2013, the Court granted plaintiff leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Filing 4. The Court directed the Clerk's Office to send plaintiff three blank summons forms and three copies of Form 285 for use in completing service of process on the United States. The Court's order further stated that plaintiff was required to effect service of process no later than 120 days after the complaint was filed. The record reflects that the Clerk's Office sent these forms to plaintiff on the following day.

The record also shows that plaintiff has not completed service of process. Where service has not been completed within 120 days after the filing of the complaint, the Court may, on its own motion, dismiss the action without prejudice or order that service be made within a specified time, provided that the plaintiff is first notified. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4\(m\). Additionally, if a plaintiff shows there was "good cause" for the failure to complete service in a timely fashion, the Court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4\(m\); Adams v. AlliedSignal Gen. Aviation Avionics, 74 F.3d 882, 887 (8th Cir. 1996). Accordingly,

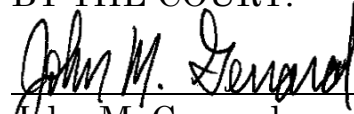

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Plaintiff shall have until August 15, 2013, to complete service of process or to show cause why this case should not be dismissed for her failure to effect service of process. If plaintiff does not respond, or if good cause is not shown, this action will be dismissed without prejudice and without further notice.

2. The clerk's office is directed to set a pro se case management deadline with the following text: August 15, 2013: deadline for plaintiff to show cause why service of process was not completed.

Dated this 15th day of July, 2013.
