ORDER

One of the parties has requested a court reporter for their own use at trial.

IT IS ORDERED that any party may use a court reporter at trial. The court reporter may sit in the courtroom. However, the court reporter’s transcript will not be the official record and will not be filed. The party hiring the court reporter shall provide opposing counsel with a copy of the transcript, if requested, at the court reporter’s customary charge for copies. That is, the opposing party will pay for a copy if requested.

DATED this 17th day of June, 2015.

BY THE COURT:

Richard G. Kopf
Senior United States District Judge
