	55 (2 pgs)	Order Denying (RE: related document(s) 16 Motion Seeking an Order Authorizing the Use of Cash Collateral and Granting of Adequate Protection filed by Debtor Sandpoint Cattle Company, LLC). The obligation of the debtor is to adequately protect the value of the collateral on the petition date. The Bankruptcy Code specifically ensures the protection of a secured creditor's assets against any decrease in value from the beginning of the automatic stay, and, because the stay is instituted the moment the petition is filed, the protection from depreciation also begins at that moment. Chase Manhattan Bank USA NA v. Stembridge (In re Stembridge), 394 F.3d 383, 387 (5th Cir. 2004). "This is the tradeoff the automatic stay creates for creditors and debtors: creditors are prevented from seizing their secured assets in order to provide debtors with breathing room to reorganize; in return, the creditors' present value is preserved throughout the reorganization through adequate protection (and priority of its claim)." Id. The closest date to the petition date for which there is evidence of value is January 31, 2013. Fil. #49 shows the value of the herd on that date was $5,229,200.00. The value in February is reduced by the February sale proceeds, which is the money debtor wants to use for operations between now and June 2013. The petition date value is not being protected under the proposal, even if the third-party contribution of $200,000 is made available. IT IS ORDERED that the motion for use of cash collateral, Fil. #16, is denied. HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Timothy J. Mahoney. (See pdf Written Opinion in its entirety)

A final hearing will be held on March 26, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. in the Lincoln courtroom. At that hearing, it would be very helpful for the court if Mr. Widdowson testified and be subjected to cross examination. In addition, because of the credibility issue, if it is feasible to have Mr. Tom Burke testify, that would be helpful. The equity interests have contributed $70,000 since the first motion for use of cash collateral was denied. The court was informed at the hearing that the equity interests have the ability to and are willing to contribute additional funds to protect the interest of Alger. Since those funds are available to the Debtor, at least on a limited basis, the motion for use of cash collateral shall be deferred until the completion of the hearing on March 26, 2013. A final decision will be announced shortly following the completion of the evidentiary presentation on that date. Alger as Trustees of the R and M Alger Family Trust, 100 Supplemental Objection to Professional Fees of Craig/Bednar for March 2013 filed by Creditor Alger Cattle Company, LLC, Creditor Raymond Alger and Mary D. Alger as Trustees of the R and M Alger Family Trust). Hearing held 4/24/2013. Robert Craig and Anna Bednar appeared as Applicants; Jerry Jensen appeared for the U.S. Trustee; and Frank Mihulka appeared for Alger Cattle Company, LLC, Raymond Alger and Mary D. Alger as Trustees of the R and M Alger Family Trust. Judicial notice taken of: (Fil. #9); (Fil. #23); (Fil. #77-1); (Fil. #90); (Fil. #91); (Fil. #95); and (Fil. #100). Fees are allowed in the amount of $25,000.00 and expenses of $1,314.91 for March 2013. Th remainder of the request is deferred until reviewed after the 120 day filing and notice. The reason for the smaller amount at this time is the failure to serve the fee statement on counsel for Alger and the fact that the fee statement amount exceeded the budget. Alger as Trustees of the R and M Alger Family Trust). The court has reviewed the Joint Preliminary Pretrial Statement (Fil. #288 ). Due to scheduling conflicts of counsel, the number of issues to be tried and the number of witnesses to be called to testify, it appears that trial cannot be completed in six to twelve hours, nor can it be tried in the time frames set forth in the joint pretrial statement. In all likelihood Judge Saladino will recuse himself from this case. Therefore, the case will not be scheduled for trial by the clerk until a judge from another district is appointed to the case.
