

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

BRANDON DONALD,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WALMART,

Defendant.

8:16CV201

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

On January 27, 2017, the court ordered Plaintiff to notify the court in writing of the date on which he received a right-to-sue notice in response to his charge of discrimination, or if he did not file suit within 90 days of his receipt of the right-to-sue notice, that he must show that equitable or exceptional circumstances exist to warrant tolling of the 90-day period. (Filing No. 10) Plaintiff was ordered to do so by February 16, 2017, or face dismissal of this matter. (Id.) To date, Plaintiff has filed no response.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that: This matter is dismissed without prejudice. The court will enter Judgment by a separate document.

Dated this 2nd day of March, 2017.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Richard G. Kopf
Senior United States District Judge