Plaintiff filed his Complaint on September 30, 2016 (Filing No. 1). Plaintiff was given leave to proceed in forma pauperis (Filing No. 5). The court now conducts an initial review of the Complaint to determine whether summary dismissal is appropriate under 28 U.S.C. § 1915\(e\)\(2\).

I. SUMMARY OF COMPLAINT

Liberal construed, Plaintiff alleges he was sexually harassed by his supervisor, Ray Curtis, and received no satisfaction when he reported the harassment to a more senior supervisor, David Crouch. Plaintiff also alleges Crouch took no action after Plaintiff reported that another supervisor, George Devereax, was texting while driving Plaintiff and other employees of WIS International to a work site. Plaintiff seeks $50,000,000.00 in damages.

II. APPLICABLE STANDARDS ON INITIAL REVIEW

The court is required to review in forma pauperis complaints to determine whether summary dismissal is appropriate. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915\(e\). The court must dismiss a complaint or any portion of it that states a frivolous or malicious claim, that fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or that seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915\(e\)\(2\)\(B\).

Pro se plaintiffs must set forth enough factual allegations to “nudge[] their claims across the line from conceivable to plausible,” or “their complaint must be dismissed.” Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 569-70 (2007); see also Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (“A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged.”).

“The essential function of a complaint under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is to give the opposing party ‘fair notice of the nature and basis or grounds for a claim, and a general indication of the type of litigation involved.’” Topchian v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., 760 F.3d 843, 848 \(8th Cir. 2014\) (quoting Hopkins v. Saunders, 199 F.3d 968, 973 \(8th Cir. 1999\)). However, “[a] pro se complaint must be liberally construed, and pro se litigants are held to a lesser pleading standard than other parties.” Topchian, 760 F.3d at 849 (internal quotation marks and citations omitted).

III. DISCUSSION OF CLAIMS

The court is not convinced it has subject-matter jurisdiction over this action. Plaintiff alleges subject-matter jurisdiction exists pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332, commonly referred to as “diversity of citizenship” jurisdiction. Under section 1332, the citizenship of each plaintiff must be different from the citizenship of each defendant. Ryan v. Schneider Nat’l. Carriers, Inc., 263 F.3d 816, 819 \(8th Cir. 2001\). In addition, the amount in controversy must be greater than $75,000.00. 28 U.S.C. § 1332\(a\). Where a complaint “alleges a sufficient amount in controversy to establish diversity jurisdiction, but . . . the court questions whether the amount alleged is legitimate, the party invoking federal jurisdiction must prove the requisite amount by a preponderance of the evidence.” Missouri v. Western Surety Company, 51 F.3d 170, 173 \(8th Cir. 1995\).

Here, the allegations of the complaint do not show that Plaintiff’s citizenship is different from that of each of the named Defendants. Also, while Plaintiff seeks to recover $50 million in damages, the court questions whether the amount in controversy is over $75,000.00. Plaintiff does not claim that he suffered any adverse employment action, but merely alleges in general terms that he feels harassed, unsafe, discriminated against, and humiliated. The court therefore will require Plaintiff to file an amended complaint alleging the State citizenship of himself and each Defendant, and also to make a showing by a preponderance of the evidence that the amount in controversy is greater than $75,000.00.

Even if the court were to construe Plaintiff’s complaint as asserting a claim of sexual harassment under Title VII the Civil Rights Act of 1964 , the complaint would be deficient. Prior to filing a suit in federal court under Title VII, a plaintiff is required to exhaust his or her administrative remedies by first seeking relief through the EEOC or the Nebraska Equal Opportunity Commission (“NEOC”). 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5. The EEOC/NEOC will then investigate the charge and determine whether to file suit on behalf of the charging party or make a determination of no reasonable cause. If the EEOC/NEOC determines that there is no reasonable cause, the agency will then issue the charging party a right-to-sue notice. 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5\(b\); see also Hanenburg v.

Principal Mut. Life Ins. Co., 118 F.3d 570, 573 \(8th Cir. 1997\).¹ Plaintiff did not attach a right-to-sue letter to his complaint and there is no evidence that he sought relief from the EEOC or NEOC.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. Plaintiff has until November 18, 2016, to file an amended complaint alleging sufficient facts to establish that the court has diversity of citizenship jurisdiction. In particular, Plaintiff must allege his State citizenship and the State citizenship of each Defendant.

2. Plaintiff has until November 18, 2016, to file sufficient evidence with the court showing that the amount in controversy is greater than $75,000.00.

3. Plaintiff's failure to comply with either of the foregoing requirements may result in the dismissal of this action without further notice.

4. The court reserves the right to conduct further review of Plaintiff's claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915\(e\)\(2\) after Plaintiff addresses the matters set forth in this order.

5. The clerk of the court is directed to set a pro se case management deadline in this matter with the following text: November 18, 2016: deadline for Plaintiff to file amended complaint and to show jurisdictional amount by preponderance of evidence.

DATED this 18th day of October, 2016.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Richard G. Kopf
Senior United States District Judge
