UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

BLAKE A. FIELD,

Plaintiff,

vs.

GOOGLE, INC.,

Defendant.

CASE NO. CV-S-04-0413

VIDEOTAPE DEPOSITION OF BLAKE A. FIELD
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 2005

REPORTED BY: CARRE LEWIS, CCR NO. 497

JOB NO. 1-34017

COURT REPORTING • DEPOSITORIES • DOCUMENT IMAGING • TRIAL PRESENTATIONS

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 the best of my recollection.

2 Q. So on or after January 20th, 2004 is when
3 the site went live is the best of your recollection?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And when we are talking about after, do you
6 know, was the site live by February 20th of 2004?

7 A. Yeah, I -- I believe it was certainly live
8 by February 20, 2004.

9 Q. Okay. So within that month's time frame
10 you believe the site went live?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. Would you say by the end of January, say,
13 January 31st, 2004 the site was live? I'm just 14 trying to get the range of --

15 A. Yeah. Yeah, I believe so.

16 Q. Okay. And when did you look at robots.txt?

17 A. It wasn't until sometime after the site
18 went live. I think maybe the -- sometime in early
19 February, mid February.

20 Q. And why did you look at robots.txt?

21 A. Because I had come to understand that there
22 was a text file called robots.txt that one could use
23 to ensure that crawler robots crawled one's site.

24 Q. How did you come to that understanding?

25 A. I believe I read it on the web on a tips

1 page.

2 Q. So did you want robots to crawl on your web
3 site?

4 A. I did.

5 Q. And so you went to robots.txt to find out
6 how to instruct robots to crawl your web site?

7 A. Robots.txt itself didn't instruct me, but,
8 yeah, I -- there was a -- there was a resource page
9 which instructed one how to utilize robots.txt.

10 Q. Okay. Did you create a robots.txt file for 11 the web site?

12 A. I did.

13 Q. When?

14 A. I don't recall the specific date that I did
15 that. I believe it was sometime in early or mid
16 February 2004.

17 Q. Why did you create a robots.txt file?

18 A. To ensure that my site would be crawled by 19 the maximum number of crawlers so that it would be 20 contained the maximum amount of search engines and 21 reference material so that my site could have the 22 maximum exposure possible that could come from 23 automated crawling software.

24 Could we go off the record for a second?

25 Q. Did you want to take a break?

1 Q. Any others?

2 A. And these other things that start with 3 meta.

4 Q. Okay. And aside from those that are shown
5 on G-000092, were you aware of any other meta tags?

6 A. I believe that I was aware of certain other
7 meta tags.

8 Q. What other meta tags were you aware of?

9 A. The meta tags that one could insert on 10 one's page to -- I know where you are going with 11 this. I was aware at the time of the meta tag that 12 one can insert on each of one's pages that can
13 specifically instruct Google not to cache one's
14 page.

15 Q. How were you aware of meta tags that one
16 could add to one's web pages that could specifically
17 instruct Google not to cache one's web pages?

18 A. In my investigation of the Google cache
19 mechanism, I think I had seen it before -- before
20 that, long -- back in 2001, I think is when I became 21 aware of -- of Google's cache and operators and 22 things like that.

23 Q. How did you become of Google's cache in 24 2001?

25 A. I believe a friend had pointed it out.

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 don't -- no, I don't believe so.

2 Q. What works are you referring to that
3 existed in December of 2003?

4 A. I believe that the -- I believe that
5 For the Lotto existed, the Caddy, there are some
6 others that are posted there now, but I don't recall
7 specifically, that I can't recall.

8 Q. Okay. And so in December of 2003 you spent
9 10 to 15 hours investigating the Google cache with 10 the idea that if you subsequently created a web site
11 and Google cached pages from that web site, you
12 would bring an action against Google; is that the 13 idea?

14 A. If Google infringed on the copyrights
15 relative to that site that, yes, indeed.

16 Q. And so you were investigating prior to 17 creating a web site?

18 A. That's correct.

19 MR. O'CALLAGHAN: We need to take a tape
20 break.

21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the video record at 22 11:48.

23 (Off of the record.)

24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the beginning of 25 videotape number two in the continuing deposition of

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 A. Okay-doke.

2 Q. Did you prepare those answers?

3 A. I did.

4 Q. Okay. And if you can look at Request For 5 Admission Number 4, does that refresh your
6 recollection as to whether or not you were aware
7 that a no-archive meta tag could be used to prevent
8 Google from including a web page in the Google
9 system cache at the time you created
10 blakeswritings.com?

11 A. There was never any doubt, to my
12 recollection.

13 Q. Okay. So you were aware of a no-archive
14 meta tag that could be used to prevent Google from 15 including a web page in a Google system cache at the 16 time you created blakeswritings.com?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Okay. Now, you knew of a process to remove 19 web sites from the Google system cache when you
20 created blakeswritings.com, didn't you?

21 A. I believe it did.

22 Q. And if you can look at your Response to 23 Requests For Admission Number 1 in Exhibit 8, I
24 believe that might refresh your recollection.

25 A. It does.

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 distinction between a crawler accessing a site and a
2 search engine caching that site for distribution to 3 others.

4 Q. Okay. How did you learn about the means to 5 contact Google to request that the Google system
6 cache remove a web site such as blakeswritings.com?

7 A. I believe it was buried somewhere on the 8 Google site.

9 Q. So did you read that in connection with 10 your investigation in December 2003?

11 A. I believe so, yes.

12 Q. Okay. But chose not to follow this 13 process; isn't that correct?

14 A. Which process?

15 Q. The process of contacting Google and
16 requesting that they not cache or allow cache copies
17 of web pages from blakeswritings.com to be 18 distributed?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. You also chose not to use the meta tag
21 no-archive with respect to your web pages; isn't
22 that correct?

23 A. Well, seeing as it is not my duty to speak,
24 indeed, I did not.

25 Q. Okay. So you chose not to use the

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 no-archive meta tag on your web site; isn't that
2 correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 MR. O'CALLAGHAN: Mark this as the next
5 exhibit, I believe it is Exhibit 9.

6 (Exhibit 9 marked.)

7 BY MR. O'CALLAGHAN:

8 Q. Handing you what's been marked as
9 Defendants Exhibit 9, I will note for the record
10 this is a printout from google.com/remove.html,
11 Bates Number G-000010 through G-000013. If you'd 12 take a minute to review these pages and let me know
13 when you are ready?

14 A. I'm ready.

15 Q. Okay. Now, did you look at
16 google.com/remove.html before creating your web
17 site?

18 A. I do believe I did.

19 Q. So this was one of the things that you
20 looked at in December of 2003?

21 A. Yes, I believe so.

22 Q. Okay. Do you see that Google identifies 23 how to use a robots.txt file to prevent Google or 24 other search engines from crawling your site under 25 the heading Remove Your Web Site near the bottom of

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 you the trouble. I believe that the home page had a
2 hit counter on it and that the other pages did not.

3 Q. Okay. And so with respect to the web pages
4 that were cached by Google that are at issue in the 5 present litigation, they did not contain any
6 technology which returned information to you, did
7 they?

8 A. At the time they were in the cache, I don't
9 believe they did.

10 Q. Okay. You didn't limit access to your work
11 that you published on the web, did you?

12 A. How do you mean by "limit access"?

13 Q. You didn't restrict anyone from coming and 14 looking at your information, did you?

15 A. Any Internet user who came to the site
16 could view it.

17 Q. And that includes all bots as well; isn't
18 that correct?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. When did you first publish your work, and
21 when I say "your work," I'm referring to the 51
22 works at issue in the present litigation?

23 A. They were first published when they were 24 put on the web when the site went live.

25 Q. And so your recollection is that's the end

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 copyright owners to identify or protect copyrighted
2 works and, (A), have been developed pursuant to a
3 broad consensus of copyright owners and service
4 providers in an open, fair and voluntary,
5 multi-industry standards process, (B), are available
6 to any person on reasonable and nondiscriminatory
7 terms, and, (C), do not impose substantial costs on 8 service providers or substantial burdens on their
9 systems or networks."

10 Do you know of any such standard technical 11 measures?

12 A. I don't.

13 Q. Okay. And so if you don't know of any such 14 standard technical measures, wouldn't it follow,
15 then, that you didn't implement any such standard
16 technical measures on your web site?

17 A. That would follow.

18 Q. Now, when you set up blakeswritings.com,
19 you wanted Google to index blakeswritings.com; isn't
20 that right?

21 A. To index it, yes.

22 Q. Why?

23 A. Because Google is a search engine that's 24 used by many people and I wanted to achieve the 25 maximum exposure to my web site.

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 Q. Did you submit your web site to Google?

2 A. I did.

3 Q. How did you do that?

4 A. Using a submittal bar.

5 Q. And so it would be a bar in which you would
6 input your URL and say, Please add me to Google?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. When did you do that?

9 A. I don't specifically recall. It was 10 shortly after the web site went live.

11 MR. O'CALLAGHAN: Mark this as the next
12 exhibit.

13 (Exhibit 13 marked.)

14 BY MR. O'CALLAGHAN:

15 Q. Handing you a document that's been Bates --
16 marked Defendant's Exhibit 13. It is Bates labeled 17 G-000014. On the top it says add your URL to 18 Google. Please take a minute to review this 19 document.

20 A. I have reviewed the document.

21 Q. Is this the type of thing that you -- the 22 type of form that you filled out when you submitted
23 your web site to Google to be indexed by Google?

24 A. No, I don't believe this is the -- this is 25 the form that was used. Obviously this printout is

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 from May 11, 2005, and it is a different -- it
2 appears to me to be a different form that was used
3 than when I submitted my site.

4 Q. What appears to be different to you from 5 the form that you used when you submitted your site?

6 A. I believe that there was only a URL to
7 enter, and a button to click to submit it. I don't
8 believe there was a section for comments and I don't
9 believe there was an optional part there.

10 Q. Okay. Did you do anything else to try to 11 get your web site indexed by Google?

12 A. Well, I'm -- I did a lot of things to try
13 to get other -- every search engine that I could --
14 that I could think of to index the site. So --

15 Q. What did you do?

16 A. Well, I had some -- I contracted with -- I
17 don't remember which company, for paid inclusion in 18 certain searches; I submitted my site to any search
19 engine that would take submittals that I could think
20 of; I had the broadest possible reach on robots.txt;
21 I utilized the Google AdWords program to have paid
22 links, paid clicks for pertinent search results in 23 Google.

24 Q. Anything else?

25 A. That's it.

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 guess every couple of few days, I get at least one
2 or two hits from that, it would seem.

3 Q. When did you first use the Google search
4 engine?

5 A. Oh, goodness. A long time ago, I don't
6 know, maybe -- perhaps not long after it first
7 started.

8 Q. So is it your recollection that you used it
9 before 2000?

10 A. I don't know. I don't -- I don't know.

11 Q. How frequently do you use Google?

12 A. Presently?

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. Not frequently at all.

15 Q. How frequently did you use Google before
16 you filed the present lawsuit?

17 A. I would say that I used it maybe for search
18 engine needs probably a third of the time. One out
19 of every three times I would use a search engine, I
20 would use Google.

21 Q. And would that be true --

22 MR. O'CALLAGHAN: Can you hear me?

23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Yes.

24 MR. O'CALLAGHAN: Good, because my mic is 25 not on.

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 Q. If you look at the second page, G-000002,
2 you see there is a section there that's labeled
3 Cached Links?

4 A. I see it.

5 Q. Can you review that and let me know if this
6 is similar to what you reviewed in December of 2003?

7 A. I have looked at it, and I do believe it is 8 similar. I can't say whether it is exactly the 9 same, but it appears similar.

10 Q. Okay. Do you see the last paragraph there
11 reads, "The cached link will be missing for sites
12 that have not been indexed, as well as for sites
13 whose owners have requested that we not cache their 14 content"?

15 A. I do see that.

16 Q. Do you recall having a similar
17 understanding when you investigated the Google cache
18 in December of 2003?

19 A. When you ask "having a similar 20 understanding," whether similar language was 21 contained?

22 Q. Do you recall having an understanding that 23 Google represented that a cached link will be
24 missing for sites that have not been indexed as well
25 as for sites whose owners have requested we not

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 cache their content in December of 2003?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. So you are aware that Google provided users
4 to cache copies of many pages before you developed
5 your own web site?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And you still sought to have your web site
8 indexed by Google?

9 A. I sought to have my web site indexed by 10 Google and indexed only.

11 Q. What do you mean "and indexed only"?

12 A. I mean solely for it to be included in the 13 index.

14 Q. But you didn't use a no-archive meta tag,
15 did you?

16 A. I did not.

17 Q. When did you first access the Google cache
18 for the works from blakeswritings.com?

19 A. I don't recall specifically. I believe it
20 was either February/March 2004.

21 Q. Did you make a screen shot?

22 A. Of the first time?

23 Q. Yeah.

24 A. I don't believe I did.

25 Q. How many times have you accessed the Google

1 cache for works on blakeswritings.com?

2 A. The works are no longer in the cache.

3 Q. Right. How many times did you access the 4 Google cache for works -- for works from
5 blakeswritings.com?

6 A. For everything in total?

7 Q. Yeah.

8 A. I don't know. Maybe each page cached I
9 would say less than five times.

10 Q. Did you keep records?

11 A. Of each time I visited?

12 Q. Of each time you requested access to the 13 Google cache version of a work from
14 blakeswritings.com?

15 A. Other than screen shots, no.

16 Q. Did you make screen shots other than the 17 ones that you have produced in connection with the 18 present litigation?

19 A. I have not.

20 Q. So you made one set of screen shots of the 21 web pages from blakeswritings.com that you received
22 from the Google cache?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Did you request access to where -- let me
25 start over.

1 number of occurrences per work wasn't an issue.

2 Q. So you didn't care if one or a hundred
3 thousand people requested access to the cache copy
4 of your web site; is that correct?

5 A. Well, after the first infringement, the 6 point became moot. So it wasn't an issue to me.

7 Q. You had established what you believe was 8 infringement and that was good enough for you; is
9 that correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 MR. O'CALLAGHAN: Let's go off the record.

12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at 12:54.

13 (Off of the record for lunch recess.)

14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the video record
15 at 1:38.

16 MR. O'CALLAGHAN: Good afternoon,

17 Mr. Field.

18 THE WITNESS: Howdy.

19 BY MR. O'CALLAGHAN:

20 Q. So you don't know if anyone other than you
21 accessed the Google cache version of the works from 22 blakeswritings.com, do you?

23 A. Objection. Calls for speculation.

24 No, I have no personal knowledge of any 25 other person.

1 your page is relevant"?

2 A. I do see that.

3 Q. Do you agree with that?

4 A. I agree, yes.

5 Q. This is a benefit for web users, isn't it,
6 the ability to find out why a particular page was
7 turned up in response to a search request?

8 A. It may be a benefit to a particular user.
9 I don't know the circumstances.

10 Q. Have you earned any money from licensing
11 the works at issue of the present litigation?

12 A. I have not.

13 Q. Have you earned any money from the sale of 14 the works at issue in the present litigation?

15 A. The sale of copies of the works?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. No, I have not.

18 Q. Have you made any money from any other
19 disposition of the works at issue in the present
20 litigation?

21 A. I have made money through donations on my 22 web site, but other than that, no.

23 Q. When you say donations on your web site,
24 are you talking about donations through PayPal?

25 A. I am.

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 argumentative.

2 Further, the facts that were stated in
3 the -- in that scenario you just stated are
4 incorrect. So maybe we can take each fact section
5 up to it. The answer to your question as is stands
6 now is, that is incorrect.

7 Q. What is incorrect about my question?

8 A. I can't recall the exact sum of that
9 question, so perhaps we could go through it.

10 Q. Okay. Let's start with you created each of 11 these works in about 25 to 45 minutes prior to --

12 A. That's correct, per work.

13 Q. Right.

14 A. Okay.

15 Q. So you sent ever spent approximately 25 to 16 45 minutes per work?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. You created these works with the intent to 19 put them on a web site?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. You intended to create this web site with 22 these works in part so that you could challenge the 23 legality of the Google cache?

24 A. That is correct.

25 Q. And you intended to seek $50,000 in damages

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 A. Desperately trying to locate Exhibit 2. I
2 have finally located Exhibit 2.

3 Q. Okay. And if you look at the section
4 headed the Google cache, it starts on page 2 of
5 Exhibit 2 --

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. -- when you refer to the Google cache, are 8 you referring to the ability -- the portion of the 9 Google web site that allows users to access Google's
10 cached version of a particular web site?

11 A. Right, the Google cache feature of the 12 Google web site.

13 Q. So you don't object to Google's initial 14 copying of your web pages for purposes of creating
15 the Google index, do you?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And that's because the Google's initial 18 copying of the web pages for purposes of creating
19 the Google index is not infringing?

20 A. Google receives its copy as distributed
21 from me, so Google is not in fact copying, it is 22 requesting a copy from me.

23 Q. So when Google requests a copy from you and 24 you provide the copy to Google, that's not
25 infringing; is that correct?

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 A. That's my understanding, that's correct.

2 Q. So the only copy that you object to is a
3 copy made when a user requests a copy of the cache
4 version of a web site and downloads it from the 5 Google server?

6 A. I want to I guess be very clear here. A
7 lot of times copy is used as -- to encompass all of 8 the rights of an author when one talks about a
9 copyright law, and so I apologize for kind of 10 getting off the subject of your question, but it is 11 a reproduction and distribution and not merely 12 making a copy.

13 But to answer your question, the
14 objectionable act which encompasses the reproduction
15 and distribution is when Google makes a copy and 16 distributes that copy of the cache copy that it
17 holds.

18 Q. So if a user never requested a copy of a
19 web site, then there would be no infringement under 20 your analysis; is that correct?

21 A. I don't believe that's -- that's fully 22 correct because I believe merely offering those
23 copies to the users is also likely an infringing
24 activity as well.

25 Q. So it is your belief that there is

1 registered your works?

2 A. I intended to be prepared for the
3 possibility, yes.

4 Q. Did you anticipate that you might sue
5 Google when you created your works?

6 A. Again, I was prepared for the possibility
7 of that.

8 MR. O'CALLAGHAN: Mark this as the next
9 exhibit.

10 (Exhibit 18 marked.)

11 BY MR. O'CALLAGHAN:

12 Q. Handing you a document that was been marked
13 Defendants Exhibit 18, it is Bates labeled G-000389.
14 This is a letter from Michael Kwun of Google to you
15 dated April 16th, 2004. Please take a moment to 16 review it and let me know when you are ready.

17 A. I have reviewed it.

18 Q. Did you receive a copy of this letter on or 19 about April 17th, 2004?

20 A. I did.

21 Q. In the first paragraph, Mr. Kwun indicates 22 that Google first learned that you did not wish to 23 have Google provide a cache copy of pages from your 24 web site when Google obtained a copy of your 25 Complaint.

BLAKE A. FIELD - 06/09/05

1 think so.

2 Q. Are you aware of any other search engines
3 that allow users to look at a cache copy of a web
4 page?

5 A. I believe there are some others now that do
6 it.

7 Q. Which ones?

8 A. You know, I'm not -- I'm not for certain.
9 I think maybe Yahoo does it, maybe MSN, but I don't
10 recall specifically whether that's the case. I
11 think so.

12 Q. Have you checked to see if they cache
13 blakeswritings.com?

14 A. I'm not for sure if I have. It seems like 15 I had.

16 Q. Do you recall if they did?

17 A. Seems to be my recollection that they
18 didn't, when I checked.

19 Q. So do you know when you checked Yahoo to 20 see if it cached blakeswritings.com?

21 A. I don't recall last time I looked.

22 Q. Do you know when you checked MSN to see if 23 it cached blakeswritings.com?

24 A. Likewise, I can't recall when I looked.

25 Q. But it is your recollection that Yahoo and 28

1 ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY NO. 8

2 Plaintiff lost licensing revenue, as Google reproduced and distributed Plaintiff's works without
3 paying a licensing fee to do so. The exact licensing arrangement and remuneration therefor that
4 the parties may have entered into had Google properly licensed Plaintiff's works is unknown,
5 therefore, the exact amount lost is unknown. The time period for the loss would be from the date
6 Google without permission reproduced and distributed any of Plaintiff's works to internet users,
7 through the date which Google removed Plaintiff's works from its cache.

8

22 ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY NO. 21

23 Google does not meet the definition of service provider. Google does not operate a system
24 through which transmissions occur. Even if it did meet the definition of service provider: (1)
25 transmissions from the Google cache are not through any system or network operated by Google,
26 rather, they originate with Google.(2) Google selects what material is in its cache, (3) Google
27 selects the recipient of the cache material (4) storage in the cache is not intermediate or transient
