UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

RICHARD MATHIS, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

COUNTY OF LYON, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:07-cv-00628-APG-GWF

ORDER ON DEFENDANT GLOVER'S RENEWED MOTION FOR JUDGMENT AS A MATTER OF LAW

(ECF No. 368)

10 On November 2, 2015 through November 10, 2015, a trial was held on this matter in 11 which a jury found for the plaintiffs and against defendant Richard Glover. At the conclusion of 12 the trial, Glover moved for judgment as a matter of law with respect to his qualified immunity
13 defense, the trespass to chattels/conversion and trespass to land claims, and the issue of punitive
14 damages. I denied those motions. Glover now renews those motions and seeks judgment as a 15 matter of law. I deny these renewed motions in full.

16 With respect to Glover's arguments that he is entitled to qualified immunity, these 17 arguments have been raised numerous times to me and to the Ninth Circuit. Each time it was 18 determined that Glover is not entitled to qualified immunity. Glover again raised this argument at 19 the close of trial, seeking judgment as a matter of law, and I denied that motion. ECF No. 363 at 20 203-204. I reaffirm that decision and again deny Glover's motion for judgment on his qualified 21 immunity defense.

22 Similarly, at the close of trial Glover moved for judgment as a matter of law on the 23 plaintiffs' trespass to chattels/conversion and trespass to land claims, as well as on the issue of 24 punitive damages. I denied those motions. Id. at 202-203. I reaffirm that decision and again deny 25 Glover's motion. Sufficient evidence was presented to support a verdict on the claims and to 26 support a punitive damage award.
