REPORT OF FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiff Warren Wanzo is proceeding in this action pro se. Plaintiff filed a Complaint (Dkt #1) on February 13, 2008. Because the court granted Plaintiff’s request to proceed in forma pauperis, the court screened the pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e). The undersigned found that Plaintiff’s complaint failed to state a claim and allowed Plaintiff thirty days to file an amended complaint. Plaintiff filed an Amended Complaint on March 27, 2008. Therefore, the court will now screen the Amended Complaint pursuant to § 1915.

Federal courts are given the authority dismiss a case if the action is legally “frivolous or malicious,” fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). When a court dismisses a complaint under § 1915(e), the plaintiff should be given leave to amend the complaint with directions as to curing its deficiencies, unless it is clear from the face of the complaint that the deficiencies could not be cured by amendment. See Cato v. United States, 70 F.3d 1103, 1106 (9th Cir. 1995).

Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides for dismissal of a complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Review under Rule 12(b)(6) is essentially a ruling on a question of law. North Star Intern. v. Arizona Corp. Comm’n, 720 F.2d 578, 580 (9th Cir. 1983). In considering whether the plaintiff has stated a claim upon which relief can be granted, all

1 material allegations in the complaint are accepted as true and are to be construed in the light most 2 favorable to the plaintiff. Russel v. Landrieu, 621 f.2d 1037, 1039 (9th Cir. 1980). Allegations of a pro
3 se complaint are held to less stringent standards than formal pleading drafted by lawyers. Haines v.
4 Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520 (1972) (per curiam).

5 The Amended Complaint in this case arises out of a ticket Wanzo received for working as a 6 “hand biller” downtown. Wanzo alleges that he was issued the ticket by a “bailiff and an officer of the 7 law,” who also handcuffed Wanzo in public. Wanzo claims to have “known for a fact that bailiff was 8 out of his jurisdiction.” Wanzo seeks monetary damages for lost earnings and for emotional distress 9 resulting from his “public embarrassment.”

10 Because Wanzo filed the Amended Complaint on the court’s Civil Rights Complaint form, the 11 court will construe it as an attempt to state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. “To state a claim under 12 § 1983, a plaintiff must allege the violation of a right secured by the Constitution and laws of the 13 United States, and must show that the alleged deprivation was committed by a person acting under 14 color of state law.” West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42 (1988) (citation omitted). “The purpose of § 1983 is 15 to deter state actors from using the badge of their authority to deprive individuals of their federally 16 guaranteed rights.” McDade, 223 F.3d at 1139 (emphasis added) (citing Wyatt v. Cole, 504 U.S.
17 158, 161 (1992)). A defendant only acts under the color of state law if he exercises power possessed by 18 virtue of state law and made possible only because he “is clothed with the authority of state law.” Id. at 19 1139-40.

20 States and state officers sued in their official capacities are not “persons” for purposes of a 21 § 1983 action and may not be sued under the statute. Will v. Mich. Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 22 71 (1989). On the other hand, § 1983 allows suits against state officers in their individual capacities for 23 acts they took in their official capacities. Hafer v. Melo, 502 U.S. 21, 26 (1991). Likewise, local 24 governments, such as municipalities, can be sued under § 1983, but only for “a policy statement, 25 ordinance, regulation, or decision officially adopted and promulgated by that body’s officers” or for a 26 “governmental ‘custom’ even though such a custom has not received formal approval through the 27 body’s official decisionmaking channels.” Monell v. Dept. of Soc. Serv. of City of N.Y., 436 U.S. 658, 28 690-91 (1978). Municipal officers may be sued in their official capacities, but the plaintiff must prove

1 that any constitutional violations occurred as a result of an official policy or custom, Monell, 436 U.S.
2 at 690, or through a failure to train municipal employees adequately, City of Canton v. Harris, 3 489 U.S. 378, 388-91 (1989).

4 Wanzo has named the individual who ticketed and handcuffed him as the Defendant in this 5 action, and he claims that Defendant Dean is a bailiff and officer of the law. Thus, it appears Wanzo is 6 suing Defendant Dean in his individual capacity for acts done under color of state law. However, to 7 state a cognizable claim under section 1983, Wanzo must also show that one of his constitutional rights 8 was violated . The Amended Complaint merely alleges that Dean handcuffed Wanzo in public and 9 issued him a ticket for handbilling. Wanzo alleges this conduct caused him public embarrassment and 10 lost earnings, but he has not alleged any of his constitutional rights were violated by Dean. The court 11 therefore finds that because of this failure, Wanzo has not stated a cognizable claim under § 1983.

12 Based on the foregoing,

13 IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall file the Amended Complaint.

14 IT IS RECOMMENDED that the Amended Complaint be DISMISSED for failure to state a 15 claim upon which relief can be granted

16 Dated this 27th day of March, 2009.
