1	Before the court is Third Party Plaintiff Rising Sun Plumbing's Motion to Enter Default
2	Against Third Party Defendant Enviromold Services (#101 <sup>1</sup> ).
3	Obtaining a default judgment is a two-step process governed by Federal Rule of Civil
4	Procedure 55. Eitel v. McCool, 782 F.2d 1470, 1471 (9th Cir. 1986). First, Rule 55(a) provides,
5	"When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or
6	otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk must enter the
7	party's default." Second, after the clerk enters default, a party must seek entry of default judgment
8	under Rule 55(b).
9	In its motion, Rising Sun appears to seek a default judgment against Enviromold. However,
10	in making this request, Rising Sun has circumvented the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil
11	Procedure 55(a) by failing to first obtain an entry of default from the clerk. Accordingly, the court
12	will deny the motion. <sup>2</sup>
