The Defendant or the Insurer shall deliver the premium check to the address stated above within 10 days of receiving this order.

Plaintiffs acknowledge and agree that the Defendant and/or the Insurer may make a "qualified assignment" within the meaning of Section 130(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the Defendant's and/or the Insurer's liability to make the periodic payments required herein. Any such assignment, if made, shall be accepted by the Plaintiff without right of rejection and shall completely release and discharge the Defendant and the Insurer from such obligations hereunder as are assigned to Prudential Assigned Services Corporation, (hereinafter "Assignee"). The Plaintiffs recognize that, in the event of such an assignment, the Assignee shall be their sole obligor with respect to the obligations assigned, and that all other releases that pertain to the liability of the Defendant and the Insurer shall thereupon become final, irrevocable and absolute.

If the liability to make the periodic payments is assigned by way of a "qualified assignment:"

- A) Periodic payments from the Assignee cannot be accelerated, deferred, increased or decreased by a Plaintiff;
- B) The Assignee does not provide to the Plaintiffs rights against the Assignee that are greater than those of a general creditor; and
- C) The Assignee's obligation for payment of the periodic payments is no greater than the obligation of the person originally liable (whether by suit or agreement) for payment and from whom the obligation was assigned.

The sole obligor of the Periodic Payments, whether it is the Defendant, the Insurer, and/or the Assignee, reserves the right to fund the liability to make the Periodic Payments by purchasing an annuity through The Prudential Insurance Company of America. The Defendant, the Insurer, or in the event of an assignment the Assignee, shall be the sole owner of the annuity and have all rights in it. Said owner of the annuity may have The Prudential Insurance Company of America, mail payments directly to the Plaintiff. Plaintiff shall be responsible for maintaining a current mailing address for Payee with The Prudential Insurance Company of America.

The obligation of the Defendant, the Insurer, or in the event of an assignment, the obligation of its Assignee, to make each Periodic Payment shall be discharged upon the mailing of a valid check in the amount of such payment to the designated address of the Payee.

All parties shall cooperate fully and execute any and all documents which may be necessary to complete the requirements for the Structured Settlement including the "Qualified Assignment and Release Agreement and Pledge Supplement."

The authorized broker of record for this structured settlement shall be Manny Valdez, RINGLER ASSOCIATES.
