|                            |  | 21 | 1. Defendant Hartford Life and Accident Insurance Company ("Hartford") may                 |  |  |
|                            |  | 22 | designate as subject to this Protective Order, those documents it produces it contends are |  |  |
|                            |  | 23 | confidential.  |  |  |
|                            |  | 24 | 2. Plaintiff Donna Lisk ("Lisk") may also designate as subject to this Protective          |  |  |
|                            |  | 25 | Order, any documents she produces in the future which she contends are confidential.       |  |  |
|                            |  | 26 | 3. Each page of any document designated by Hartford or Lisk as subject to this             |  |  |
|                            |  | 27 | Protective Order shall be marked "Confidential." Any document or page not so marked shall  |  |  |
|                            |  | 28 | not be subject to this Protective Order.   |  |  |
|                            |  |    | -2-  |  |  |

4. Documents subject to this Protective Order may be disclosed to counsel for the 1 parties to this case, their employees, experts and consultants retained by counsel and to the 2 parties to this case themselves. Those documents shall not be disclosed to any other person or 3 entity in paper or electronic format without the written consent of the producing party or further 4 5 order of the court, except as provided in paragraphs 5, 6, and 7 below.

5. XXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

SEE END OF ORDER FOR NEW PARAGRAPH 5.

8

9 6. Documents subject to this Protective Order may be used at trial subject to any restrictions which the court determines are appropriate at the time of trial. 10

7. Prior to delivery of any documents subject to this Protective Order to any of the parties or to experts or consultants retained by any of the parties, counsel delivering such documents shall provide a copy of this Protective Order to the party receiving the documents.

8. 14 Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent any of the parties to this action 15 from moving to have the Court declare that any or all of the documents subject to this Protective Order are non-confidential and may be disclosed to third parties without restriction. Nothing in 16 this Protective Order shall prevent the Court from declaring on its own motion that any or all of 17 the documents subject to this Protective Order are non-confidential and may be disclosed to 18 third parties without restriction. Nothing in this Protective Order shall constitute an admission 19 by either party that any of the documents identified by the other party as "Confidential" are in 20 fact confidential.

22 9. At the conclusion of this matter, counsel for all parties shall return all copies of the documents subject to this Protective Order to counsel for the party producing them with the 23 24 exception of those documents that are altered by counsel and are subject to the attorney workproduct doctrine, which shall be destroyed in such a manner as the contents of the documents 25 subject to the protective order are illegible. However, and to the extent necessary to preserve 26 his file for the defense of a claim brought for professional responsibility purposes or 27 28 professional negligence, either by his client or by a regulatory entity, Plaintiff's counsel shall be permitted to maintain indefinitely a copy of the documents controlled by this Order. The documents retained by Plaintiff's counsel for this purpose shall continue to be subject to the provisions of this Order indefinitely.

***5. Documents subject to this Protective Order may be offered in connection with non-dispositive pre-trial motions in this matter. Any document subject to this Protective Order which is offered in connection with such pre-trial motion in this matter shall be filed under seal. However, any document subject to this Protective Order which is offered in connection with a dispositive pre-trial motion shall not be filed under seal without the express approval of the court.
