Case No.: 2:09-cv-01590-RLH-PAL

ORDER

(Motion to Strike #54;
Motion for Leave to Amend #53)

1 Before the Court is Plaintiff/Counterclaim Defendant Anahuac Management and 2 Third-party Defendant Jehu Hand's Motion to Strike Keith A. Mazer's Motion for Leave to
3 File Amended Counterclaims and Third-party Claims (#54, filed July 14, 2011). The Court
4 has also considered Defendant/Counterclaimant/Third-party Plaintiff Keith A. Mazer's Opposition
5 (#56, filed July 29), and Anahuac and Hand's Reply (#57, filed Aug. 8).

6 Also before the Court is Mazer's Motion for Leave to File Amended
7 Counterclaims and Third-party Claims (#53, filed July 14, 2011). Anahuac and Hand did not
8 respond directly to the motion, but rather filed their motion to strike.

9 The Court need not explicate the facts of this case as they are of extremely limited
10 value to the resolution of this motion. However, the Court directs the reader to its prior Order
11 (#38) and Magistrate Judge Leen's more recent Order (#59) for the background of this case.

12 Here, the Court grants Anahuac and Hand's motion to strike because Mazer's
13 motion to amend his answer comes many months after the deadline set for such motions in the 14 Scheduling Order (#35) Judge Leen issued in this case. See U.S. Dominator, Inc. v. Factory Ship
15 Robert E. Resoff, 768 F.2d 1099, 1104 (9th Cir. 1985) (superseded by statute on other grounds);
16 see also Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 610-11 (9th Cir. 1992). If not for 17 the motion to strike, the Court would simply have denied the motion on that ground. Additionally,
18 Mazer's motion fails to seek amendment of the scheduling order pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil
19 Procedure 16 as would be proper prior to the Court considering a motion for leave to amend.¹
20 Mazer only argues that amendment should be allowed under Rule 15, the wrong (or at least 21 incomplete) standard and only makes arguments related to that liberal standard rather than Rule
22 16's more strict "good cause" standard.

23
25 ¹ The Court notes that it has the discretion to treat a motion for leave to amend as also being a motion
26 to amend the scheduling order, however, it chooses not to do so here. Mazer also could have included a request to amend the scheduling order in his motion, but chose not to.

CONCLUSION
