

motion for limited discovery in order to oppose the motion. Doc. #28.

II. Discussion

3 Nevada's Anti-SLAPP statute, found at NRS § 41.635 et seq., provides that a defendant 4 may file a special motion to dismiss within sixty days after service of the complaint. 5 NRS 41.660(3)(a). If a special motion is filed, the court must treat the motion as one for summary judgment and stay discovery pending a ruling on the motion. NRS § 41.660(3)(b). However, in 6 7 federal court, a plaintiff is entitled to seek limited discovery to oppose an anti-SLAPP motion. See 8 e.g., Metabolife Int'l, Inc. v. Wornick, 264 F.3d 832, 850 (9th Cir. 2001); see also, Anderson v. 9 Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 250 n.5 (1986) (a court is required to permit discovery where the 10 nonmoving party has not had the opportunity to discover information that is essential to its 11 opposition). Limited discovery is permitted when the plaintiff has "identified and requested 12 discovery of probative information solely available from the defendants." Metabolife, 264 F.3d at 13 850.

Here, Pacquiao seeks deposition testimony from the moving defendants as well as limited document production relating to any statements about Pacquiao using performing enhancing drugs directed at the Nevada Athletic Commission in order to oppose defendants' declarations and motion. Doc. #28. The court has reviewed the papers and pleadings on filed in this matter and finds that Pacquiao is entitled to limited discovery to oppose defendants' special Anti-SLAPP motion.

In support of their special motion, the moving defendants filed declarations stating that they acted without malice and without knowledge of any statement's falsity. The court finds that defendants' statements about their knowledge and reasoning is solely within their control. Without contradictory evidence of defendants' mental state or knowledge, Pacquiao is unable to oppose defendants' special anti-SLAPP motion. See e.g., Metabolife, 264 F.3d 832. Accordingly, the court shall grant Pacquiao's motion to conduct limited discovery and extend the briefing schedule for defendants' motion to dismiss.

III. Scope of Discovery

Pacquiao has attached to his motion proposed notices of depositions for the moving defendants along with requests for the production of certain documents. See Doc. #28, Exhibits 5, 6, 7. The court has reviewed the proposed production requests and finds it necessary to outline the scope of Pacquiao's pre-opposition discovery.

Discovery is limited solely to those documents and issues relevant to opposing defendants' anti-SLAPP motion. Pacquiao is entitled to take the depositions of defendants Schaefer and de la Hoya, but questioning shall be limited to: (1) the issue of Pacquiao's alleged use of performance enhancing drugs; (2) any statements or communications made by the defendants, their agents or representatives in connection with that issue, including defendants' mental state, the circumstances and basis upon which any statements were made; and (3) knowledge of any statement's falsity.

Document production shall be limited solely to Pacquiao's alleged use of performance enhancing drugs and any related statements or communications made by defendants, their agents, or representatives. At this time, Pacquiao may not seek information or documents relating to de la Hoya's, or any other boxers, use of performance enhancing drugs.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that plaintiff's motion for an order granting limited discovery and extending the briefing schedule (Doc. #28) is GRANTED. Plaintiff is granted leave to conduct discovery limited to the attached notices of depositions for defendants Richard Schaefer and Oscar de la Hoya (Doc. #28, Exhibit 5, 6) and the attached subpoena duces tecum for non-party Golden Boy Promotions, Inc. (Doc. #28, Exhibit 7) within the scope of discovery outlined by the court. Plaintiff's opposition to defendants' motion to dismiss is due on May 7, 2010.
