5	UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6	DISTRICT OF NEVADA
7	* * *)
8	KELLY MANTERIS,
9	Plaintiff,
10	v.))	2:11-cv-00045-PMP-CWH
11	WAL-MART STORES, INC.,	ORDER
12	Defendant.	ORDER
14	Before the Court for consideration is Plaintiff's Addendum to Motion in
15	Limine #4 (Doc. #105). In the Addendum, Plaintiff contends the Court should exclude the
16	testimony of Adam Mandilk and Joe McMahon, the videographers who shot the
17	surveillance videos of Plaintiff. Plaintiff argues that these two witnesses are substantive
18	rather than impeachment witnesses, and therefore should have been disclosed by Defendant
19	in the Joint Pre-Trial Order or in Defendant's Pre-Trial Disclosures. Defendant responds
20	that impeachment evidence does not need to be disclosed, and that the witnesses should be
21	permitted to provide authentication or foundational testimony regarding the surveillance
22	videos.
23	The witnesses may provide authentication or foundational testimony regarding
24	the surveillance videos, to the extent the surveillance videos are received at trial. However,
25	the Court will reserve ruling on specific objections to these witnesses' testimony to the extent they seek to testify beyond authenticity or foundation at trial.

1	IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Plaintiff's Addendum to Motion in
2	Limine #4 (Doc. #105) is hereby DENIED without prejudice to renew specific objections to
3	the testimony of Adam Mandilk and Joe McMahon during trial.
